The Halloween Carnival was held last Saturday night at the local school. It was highly entertaining and was reminiscent of the old time frolics. Mrs. Esther C. Brooks and Mrs. Neil Ross were in charge of the program which was entitled, "Why the Spacemen Left." Mrs. Bob Rights led the Glee Club in singing two selections, "Simple Melody" and "Baby Face," with accompaniment by Mrs. Lois C. Moore at the piano. Mrs. May M. Clapp was in charge of a rollicking costume parade.

There was also a chance cake drawing and a door prize drawing. The following booths were open: Grab Bag Sale, Fish Pond, Fortune Telling (with lovely Miss Mary Poole in charge). Mrs. Alma Fowler sold tasty homemade candy. Delicious refreshments were served throughout the evening. The popularity contest proved to be a spirited and suspenseful one. The primary king and queen were Terry Moore (with strong opposition from Wiggy Wiggins) and Connie Sue King; the grammar grades king and queen were Terry Baker and Sheila Cook; the high school king and queen were Johnny Harrison and Jean Cepps. Principal Roy Reeves was Master of Ceremonies.

The Beta Club of the local school and the sponsor met on Tuesday to discuss several matters. The club made plans for sponsoring a Bake Sale on Saturday morning, Nov. 7 from 9 to 12 at Citizens Bank here. The club members voted to induct two new members, Dewey Etherton and Paul Lovin Jr., in the foreseeable future.

CONSTIPATED?
Medical reports show how folks over 35 can establish regularity

After 35, irregularity often becomes a problem. What you need is something that aids nature and helps establish regularity. Such an aid to regularity is the daily use of SERUTAN. Here's medical evidence: A group of men and women took SERUTAN daily under medical supervision. In case after case SERUTAN, taken daily, helped establish regularity. So, for real relief from constipation after 35, try SERUTAN, powder or granular.
