GEORGE R. BLUE, Pastor

The Session held its regular monthly meeting after the close of the morning service with the pastor acting as the moderator. Several items of importance to the material and spiritual welfare of the church were discussed and acted upon. The most important was the making of preliminary and tentative plans for evangelistic services to be held in the church late in the spring. Among the elders who attended were Fleat Reeves, Fred Rector and Spurgeon Chandler, who is the clerk of the Session.

The morning service was conducted at 11 by the young people of the church who had complete charge of the service. Youth Sunday was observed and the title of the sermon was "On Being A Christian," with the text being taken from the Book of Acts. It is hoped that the observance of Youth Sunday will become a regular feature of the program of the church. The youth choir sang a selection and Betty and Dorothy Johnson sang a duet. They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Minnie Davis.

Members and friends of the church are reminded that there will be a service here this coming Sunday morning at 11. Since this is the fifth Sunday in the month, it will be a Union Service and it is hoped that all will make a special effort to attend. The pastor will occupy the pulpit and deliver the sermon.

On Sunday evening the Westminster Fellowship met at 6:30 under the guidance of Miss Ruth Guthrie and Miss Odessa Henderson. Following the devotions there was a Bible Quiz by Miss Guthrie. The group rehearsed several songs which they hope to sing in the church in the near future.

White Rock
There was a receptive and responsive congregation on hand at the morning service. Youth Sunday was observed and the entire service was conducted by the young people of the church. The theme of the sermon was "The Christian Life" and the text was taken from one of the Pauline Epistles. The young people were prepared to lead the service by Mrs. Frank Shelton.

Following the service there was the weekly meeting of the Sunday School under the direction of Mr. Clarence Wallin, the new superintendent. Mr. Ray Tweed led the Adult Bible Class. In the afternoon there was a meeting of the elders from the various Presbyterian churches in this area. It was held at the church in Glen Lee. Rev. Robert Muir was the leader and Mr. Chapel Tweel went from this church.

Hot Springs
Members and friends of the church and community are reminded that this coming Sunday there will be a Union Service in the future.
