

BETTER THINGS IN OUR PLANS FOR 1960

1. We are now using the highly efficient "LINT-FREE, CLING-FREE PROCESS" with our cleaning formula. It's exclusive anti-static ingredient makes clothes cleaner and color brighter.
2. All pressing machines are equipped with latest features to insure softer pressing with less shine.
3. Have already been using special machines for creaseless sleeves, etc.
4. Are now testing new fluorescent treatment to brighten colors still more.
5. Alteration facilities have been greatly expanded — to include: NEW POCKETS, or HALF POCKETS, ZIPPERS, ELBOW PADS, KNIT CUFFS, COLLARS, BOTTOMS FOR JACKETS, MENDING AND ALTERATIONS OF ANY KIND.
6. Also are lining up other improvements which should make 1960 the most satisfying year ever for our many friends and customers.

VOTING RIGHTS
 What are the qualifications for voting in North Carolina? Only those persons who have previously registered are entitled to vote.

To be a registered voter one must be twenty-one years of age, a citizen of the United States, and shall have resided in North Carolina for one year and in the precinct, ward or other election district in which he offers to vote thirty days next preceding the election; provided, that removal from one precinct, ward or other election district to another in the same county shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct, ward or other election district from which he has removed until thirty days after such removal.

Every person presenting himself for registration shall be able to read and write any section of the Constitution in the English language to the satisfaction of the registrar. There is no exception applicable to certain persons under the so-called "grandfather's clause."

No person who has been convicted, or who has confessed to guilt in open court upon indictment, of any crime, the punishment of which now is, or may hereafter be, imprisonment in the State's Prison, shall be permitted to vote unless such person shall be first restored to citizenship in the manner prescribed by law.

May the Legislature reduce the age requirement for voting from twenty-one years to eighteen years? No. This can only be done by an amendment to the Constitution of North Carolina.

Is the payment of a poll tax a prerequisite for voting in North Carolina? No.

Is it the duty of a registrar to ball team disposed of Laurel, 10 to 2, Friday afternoon to win their third straight game this season. R. L. Gosnell pitched a neat 4-hitter and led Hot Springs at the plate with 2 for 3. This was his second win in as many starts.

May a registered voter change his party affiliation on the registration book? Yes. But no registered voter is permitted to change his party affiliation for a primary after the close of the registration period.

In certain counties, where there is a full time and permanent registration the change of party affiliation may be effected not less than 21 days prior to the primary election.

request an applicant for registration to state his or her political party affiliation and to record this fact opposite the name? Yes. The registrar isn't being "nosey"; he is only performing a duty imposed upon him by law.

If the applicant refuses to declare his affiliation or says that he is an independent, the registrar may register such applicant's name, if found qualified to register, but he will be told that he cannot vote in any party primary election and only in a general election held thereafter.

Schedule of Home Demonstration Clubs In County

April 18 — Beech Glen Club meets with Mrs. Lib Holcombe at 2 p. m.

April 19 — Little Pine HD Club meets with Mrs. Wiley Roberts at 2 p. m.

Before being permitted to change his party affiliation, for the purpose of participating in a primary election, the registered voter is required to take an oath of party loyalty to the party to which he wishes to now affiliate. He must solemnly swear or affirm to support the nominees of his new party in future elections.

The oath of party loyalty is not required from one registering for the first time. It is required only from those desiring a change of party affiliation on the registration book.
