HEARD AND SEEN

By "POP"

By jove, here it is Thursday morning and I suddenly remember that I haven't written a column for this week — — sometimes press day slips up on me and writing a column at the last minute when things are rushed to capacity is a mighty hard thing to do — — we had a very interesting talk at Brotherhood Monday night by Rev. David B. Roberts — — he surely is a fine person and I always enjoy hearing him — — I've never heard him make a statement that wasn't worthwhile — — he usually has something to say before he speaks — — was also glad that the Marshall Lions voted to donate $100 toward the Babe Ruth team here — — the Lions Club is certainly an active organization — always ready to help any worthwhile project — — I've been sorta "lost" this week with my good wife in Asheville Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday attending the OES Grand Chapter meeting — — I "baby-sat" with our pet Persian cat, "Scoop," and saw that he was fed properly, etc. — — he missed his "mother" greatly, and also his "grandmother" (Mrs. White, who visited in Woodfin this week) — — the only excitement around town Wednesday p. m., was the moving of those huge transformers from the depot to the new REA sub-station — — heard that Carol Marie Houston, a contestant in the Dairy Queen Contest, was on television the other night — — thanks to the Rev. George R. Blue for his nice letter received this week — — always glad when people show appreciation — — Thomas and Gail are back from honeymoon — — both displaying fine tans — — remember, Sunday is Father's Day — do something nice for your Dad.

MISS CAROL MARIE HOUSTON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Houston, of Marshall RFD 6, was a contestant in the recent Dairy Queen Contest held at Westgate in Asheville. Miss Houston represented Madison County in the event.
