MRS. J. W. HUFF, Correspondent

Mrs. Locke Robinson spent a week recently in Jefferson City, Tenn., visiting her brother and family while her daughter, Miss Patricia Robinson, spent the time with friends at the beach.

Mrs. L. L. Vann left Wednesday of last week for a two weeks visit with relatives in Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilson Fleetwood and family, of Kingston, visited here the week-end of the Fourth and, on their return, they took Mrs. Julia Tilson home with them for a visit there and to other relatives in Raleigh and Walstonburg.

Mrs. Carl Brittain and little son, of Statesville spent the week before the Fourth here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Griffin and little daughter visited here the week-end of the Fourth. Miss Caroleen Johnson, who had been with them at their home in Columbia, S. C., for two weeks, returned at that time. And Miss Margaret Stines, who had spent several weeks here, went back with them and on to her home in Camden.

Your Social Security

Some household workers in Madison County are not receiving social security credit for their earnings, according to Mrs. Lucille M. Rickman, field representative of the Social Security Administration.

Mrs. Bruce Sprinkle and Mr. Frederick Anderson, students at ASTC, were home over the Fourth week-end. Miss Elizabeth Vann and her roommate, also students at ASTC, visited Mrs. L. L. Bann at that time. And Miss Mary Huff spent the holiday here with her mother.

Mrs. Frank Yandell and little daughter, Linda Lee, are here this week visiting her parents, Dean and Mrs. R. M. Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Savage and little daughter and son, of Canton, Ohio, are guests of her sister, Mrs. D. M. Robinson and Mr. Robinson at their home here for a few days this week.

Mrs. John W. Huff is spending a part of this week in Greenville, S. C., with relatives.

Mrs. W. K. Anderson was hostess to a luncheon party for fifteen guests on Wednesday of last week, honoring her niece, Miss Elaine James, of Asheville, bride-elect of Jesse O. Barbour. Mrs. Locke Robinson, Miss Patricia Robinson, and Mrs. O. M. Jarvis were among the guests.

The law makes the employers responsible for reporting for social security purposes the cash wages they pay to workers in their household, said Mrs. Rickman. Household workers who receive $50 or more in cash wages during a calendar quarter have earned social security credits for that period. This might be as little work as $4 per week. These workers
