HEARD AND SEEN

By "POP"

The fatal accident Monday claiming the lives of 2 Madison County women was one of the most horrible I've ever hear of — as the picture shows in this issue — most everyone's attention has been on the Democratic National Convention in LA this week — frankly, I thing there's a lot of nonsense carried on at these conventions — this "favorite son" waste of time, plus the long demonstrations which mean little, seem to me useless and unnecessary — also the many "seconds" to the nomination — maybe I'm just feeling worn out after listening to last night's session and roll call until the wee hours — the convention is quite a spectacle, but in my opinion should be streamlined a great deal — this goes for both Dem. and GOP conventions — incidentally, haven't noticed Zeno Ponder on TV a single time — wonder if he's "camera shy?" — am looking forward to the Hunter-Roberts wedding next Sunday afternoon — both "Archie" and Jennie Lou are great "favorites" of mine — enjoyed the Brotherhood hamburger cookout Tuesday night at Paul's and Nell's — also enjoyed hearing Fred Brown, guest speaker — miss Vena Davis at the drug store — hope she soon gets back on duty — the TVA booklet on flood control and the pictures in it are most interesting — you may look at said booklet if you come to the office here.
