NEW ASC WHEAT STABILIZATION PROGRAM

The New Wheat Stabilization Program which can do so much to improve the economy of our rural and urban areas could work to the disadvantage of some small wheat farmers if they do not understand the changes brought about by this new program.

According to A. P. Hassell Jr., administrative officer for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation State Committee, the Congress, in designing this new law, felt that the total crop production of the small wheat farms, those that were in the 15-acre or less group, before and now are in the 13 1/2-acre or less designation, is quite substantial.

As a matter of fact, Hassell pointed out, the farms with small wheat acreage produced one-sixth of the 1960—about 220 million (Continued To Last Page)

Consumers as well as farmers in the county will be glad to hear about the Wheat Stabilization Program to be administered by the ASCS county office. According to Andy N. Woody, chairman of the Madison County ASC committee (office) this dual interest is brought about by the fact that the wheat program is a farm-city program. ALFALFA WEEVIL CONTROLLED CHEAPLY, EASILY

Alfalfa weevil can be controlled cheaply and easily, stated Harry G. Silver, assistant farm agent. Unless you treat your alfalfa for weevil this fall, you will have trouble in 1962.

WHAT TO USE TO CONTROL ALFALFA WEEVIL:

Granular Heptachlor.

HOW MUCH: 30 pounds of 2 1/2% granular heptachlor per acre.

WHEN TO APPLY: Between October 15 and November 15.

WHAT TO DO

1. Treat all alfalfa acreage on farm — new and old.

2. Apply the granules evenly on alfalfa with a cyclone seeder or tractor seeder.

3. Follow precautions on label.

4. See your dealer and get your granular heptachlor ordered.

WHAT NOT TO DO

1. Do not graze treated alfalfa land before May.

2. Do not wait until you see trouble next spring — it is too late then.

Control of alfalfa weevil treatment costs less than three bales of alfalfa hay. Can you afford not to treat?

Practically every business firm and many individuals have contributed to the promotion with more than 42 firms giving tickets to customers. Like last year's promotion, which was so successful, a ticket will be given for each $1.00 purchase or paid on account.

Officials announced this week that MORE prizes would be given away this year than ever before with perhaps more drawings. Dates of drawing will be announced later. A grand prize will be given away on December 23. LIKES SILAGE AS FEED FOR LIVESTOCK

Mr. Dewey Foster, who lives in the Sleepy Valley Community of Madison County, is well pleased with silage as a feed for his grade "C" milk cows and beef animals, stated P. W. England, assistant farm agent, this week.

In 1960 Mr. Foster built a bunker silo which holds 160 tons of silage. After feeding one year and filling the silo in 1961, Mr. Foster has a lot of praise for this method of preserving feed. He hired someone to drive the cutter last year but found that he could do a good job himself, this year. By putting dump beds on his two farm trucks, the job of silage was made much easier. Mr. Foster said "I am 63 years of age and had planned on retiring in a few years. This method of producing feed is so easy I think I will continue farming for a much longer period of time."

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA farmers Tuesday saw a demonstration of a number of field crops harvesters in action on the farm of Levi Buckner in Madison County, showing the harvesters' ability to harvest corn silage. Corn silage has grown in popularity with WNC farmers in the past few years, and where there were once only a few harvesters, a large number are now in use. The demonstration was arranged by the manufacturers to demonstrate how their products compared under similar conditions. Also demonstrated was the use of atrazine 80W for weed and grass control. The foreground shows how the treatment works in controlling the grass in a field.
