News for Veterans

Here are authoritative answers from the Veterans Administration to questions from former servicemen and their families:

Q—What educational benefits have been provided for peacetime veterans?

A—Although Congress has considered several types of educational benefits for peacetime veterans, none have passed into legislation yet.

Q—Are peacetime disability compensation payments the same as those received by wartime veterans?

A—Peacetime disability compensation rates are paid at 80 percent of the corresponding wartime rates.

Q—As a World War II veteran with GI term insurance, can I convert part of my $10,000 term insurance to a permanent plan?

A—You may convert as little as $1,000 or more in multiples of $500 . . . such as $1,500 or $2,500 . . . at one time.

Q—I am the widow of a World War I veteran. In January 1960, I was told I was not eligible for VA pension because my husband did not have a compensable service-connected injury when he died. I have heard that requirement has been changed. Is that true?

A—Yes, since July 1, 1960, you are eligible for a pension if your husband had 90 days of active service in World War I and was discharged under other than dishonorable conditions.

NEWS from the Services

Coppingen, Germany (AHTNC) — Army Specialist Four John R. Shook, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Shook, Route 1, Leicester, recently participated in a combined arms phase of the five-week 4th Armored Division field training exercises in the Grafenwohr-Hohenfels area of Germany.

The exercises stressed the ability of infantry, artillery, armor and logistical support units to work together under combat conditions. Training of this nature is designed to maintain a constant state of combat readiness essential to a modern Army deployed to maintain the defense of the free world.

Specialist Shook is a driver in Headquarters Company of the division's 37th Armor in Craisheim. He entered the Army in November 1959 and arrived overseas in August 1960.

The 20-year-old soldier is a 1959 graduate of Leicester High School.

Hot Springs News

R. C. KIRBY, Correspondent

Mrs. Peter M. Feldtmose has returned from a stay of several weeks in Tampa, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Carter and son, Mike, were visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Grubbs, over the week end. Ted is one of the best known basketball coaches in the state, having piloted the Lee Edward High School team to a win of 17 games out of 20 played this season.

Mr. J. W. Moody of Candler, a former Hot Springs citizen, was in town several days last week, visiting old neighbors and friends. Mr. Moody will reach the mile post of 89 years in May.

The Methodist District Rally Sunday night in Asheville was a huge success. The City Auditorium was scarcely large enough to hold the 3,000 present. Twenty Methodists from Hot Springs attended.

Little Miss Frances Ramsey remains in St. Joseph's Hospital, Asheville. She is greatly improved and will be home real soon. We miss you, Frances.

Mr. W. C. Swann went to Waynesville Monday for a check-up.

The Hot Springs Planning Board met in the offices of Pacific Mills Monday night. A full attendance of members was noted, and several guests were present. The Planning Board is enthusiastically working on our program of developing the Hot Springs area into a mecca for tourists and recreation center. Prospects are bright.

Mrs. Horner of Del Rio is the carrier on the new RFD 3 which has just been established. Welcome to town, Mrs. Horner.

Mrs. Wiley West of Kings Mountain, passed away April 20 after a lingering illness. She was a sister of Mrs. Wayne Roberts, of Hot Springs, who attended the funeral.

Saturday night Mrs. Myrtle Burgin entertained with three tables of bridge. A dessert course was served first, and punch, nuts and candies were enjoyed during the game. High score ladies' prize was won by Mrs. Neill Ross, and high score men's prize was won by Mr. Neill Ross. Traveling prize went to Mrs. Hugh Lance and bingo prize to Mrs. LeRoy Quinn. Mrs. Burgin used St. Patrick's Day motif and arrangement of yellow spring flowers were used throughout the house.

Miss Jannet Feldtmose, who is doing research work at Cornell University, is spending spring vacation with her mother, Mrs. Peter Feldtmose. Tuesday, Mrs. Burgin invited some friends to have lunch with Miss Feldtmose and play bridge.

Miss Mary Leta Buquo, who teaches in Burgundy Farm Day School at Alexandria, Va., has been spending spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Buquo. Miss Buquo brought a friend, Miss Barbara Mayer, with her.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church has completed its ten weeks study of Romans, with the pastor, the Rev. Mr. Heier, teaching the class. A covered dish luncheon was served at noon Monday.

Mrs. Hugh Lance is home from an extended visit to relatives and friends in Florida.
