

The News-Record

Published Weekly At
MARSHALL, N. C.

NON-PARTISAN IN POLITICS

Second-class mail privileges authorized at Marshall, N. C.

H. L. STORY, Owner and Publisher
J. I. STORY, Managing Editor

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
OUTSIDE MADISON COUNTY

15 Months	$5.00	15 Months	$3.00
One Year	$4.00	One Year	$2.50
Six Months	$3.00	Six Months	$2.00
Three Months	$2.00	Three Months	$1.50
Airmail	36c Per Week	Four Months	$1.00

SUBSCRIPTION RATES IN MADISON - BUNCOMBE
COUNTIES

EDITORIAL

DO YOU REMEMBER?

In this fast moving world it's hard enough to keep up with daily changes and happenings. It's even harder to keep up with what's already happened much less remembering when it happened. If we were to ask you what important things happened in Madison County this time a year ago, we doubt if you could remember many of them. What about three years ago or five years ago? Time flies so swiftly many things which happened several years ago seem to be much more recent than the facts reveal.

In last week's issue, we published many important happenings which occurred during 1962. Some of them, we'll admit, were surprising. Several readers have commented about the review and stated that it was very interesting.

In this first issue of 1963, we decided to do a little more research and see what happened during past years in January. Do you remember?

January, 1961

Mrs. Callie Stamey, 80-year-old mother of 18 children, who resides near Hot Springs, was treated Friday by a physician for the first time in her life. Conservation District encourages planting of white pine trees in Madison County. Commissioners go on record to encourage industry in county. Berry W. Stines, retired member of State Highway Dept., dies. Mrs. C. M. Hinkle honored on 90th birthday, Jan. 8. Broken gasoline valve causes dangerous fire at B & B Oil Co., between Marshall and Walnut. Dr. John F. Ditunno speaks at Marshall C of C. A. E. Leake named county heart fund chairman. Need for county hospital discussed here. L. L. Story dies January 19. Rita Boone injured in fall. Troy L. Morley, 17, takes two days off school and goes with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Jarvis and Mrs. J. W. Huff.

January, 1960

299 persons receive eye examinations as Dr. Lord praises Marshall, Hot Springs Lion Clubs. W. W. Peck chosen to head department on State Board of Education in Raleigh. Mary T. Morris, dies Dec. 31, 1959. C. E. Mashburn named to Regional Planning Commission. Dr. Robert L. Holt new dean of Instruction at East Carolina College. D. J. Jarvis, 70, of Mars Hill, RFD 2, killed while crossing road. C. D. Sawyer new pastor at Seminary. Milam Wall recommended for MAAC Award. Ben Frisby, Sr., and Ben Frisby, Jr., injured in car-truck wreck. Dr. A. M. Ramsey reelected to board of health. Dr. Sams sponsored as "General Practitioner of the Year". Rev. Lester Crayton resigns pastorate at Enon and North Fork.

January, 1959

J. Frank Fisher accepts post with Land Bank. Mail boxes damaged in county. Alaska becomes 49th State of Union. Miss Louise McClure sells book of poems. Mrs. John N. Mitchell Jr., joins staff of welfare dept. here. Mrs. Joe Eads seriously injured in wreck Jan. 15. Mrs. Fred Tilson passes Tuesday, Jan. 13. Apartment and house burn near Walnut. Dr. Robert Seymour resigns pastorate at Mars Hill Baptist Church. Laurel 4-Hers win district contest. Rural fire truck now ready to answer calls. Mrs. Minnie S. Ramsey passes Jan. 14. Ed Candler awarded $60,000 by railroad. Madison teams enter Class A Pisgah Conference. Fire destroys garage apt. of Doyle Rogers.

January, 1958

William Morgan Wilde dies Jan. 1. Judges of superior court don robes. Folk material presented Mars Hill College by Bascom Lamar Lunsford. Dr. Lee Knight now in Marshall. Vance Davis of Spring Creek licensed to preach. Ramsey's Dept. Store under new management. J. M. Baley renominated District Attorney. Hubert Edwards to manage Black Mountain theater. Whitehurst Scholarship Fund aids students at MHC.

January, 1957

Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Roberts have first baby of 1957 in WNC. Paul Rice new Master of local Masonic Lodge. Ira Massey, Walnut RFD 1, passes Jan. 3. Judge Felix Alley passes Jan. 6. J. M. Baley, Sr., passes Jan. 9. D. D. Gross speaks to Marshall PTA. Patsy Ann Reeves of Walnut named sponsor at pre-inaugural ball. Howard Banks accepts position in tax office here. Girl Scout fund reaches $731.60. W. G. McDaris, 70, dies Jan. 16. R. V. Ramsey of Walnut passes Jan. 16. R. R. Ramsey, of Walnut, dies Jan. 22. Trailer loaded with alfalfa

Shown above is the Christ Harvesters Quartette which will perform during the revival mission which will be held at the Walnut Presbyterian Church January 11 through January 13. The public is invited to attend the services.

Hot Springs News

R. C. KIRBY, Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Izlar, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Short of Lynchburg, Va., were recent guests of Mrs. C. Burgin.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Painter and children of Sylva were guests of Mrs. Painter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Burgin through the holidays.

Mrs. Mary Rumbough of Asheville, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. Lena Bruce, has returned home.

Rev. and Mrs. Harry Sellers were visiting relatives in Brevard and made a trip to South Carolina during the holidays.

Charles Treadway of Nashville, Tenn., spent several days in Hot Springs recently, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Whitten.

Miss Charlotte Moore and Miss Linda Ramsey were home for Christmas. They are attending school in Asheville.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Sumerel of West Asheville, have returned home after a week's visit in Hot Springs.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson of Roanoke, Va., came home for a few days last week to visit their parents.

Mr. William Haddad of Clemson College visited friends in Hot Springs last week.

Dr. James R. Norton, formerly of Spruce Pine, has moved to Hot Springs.

Citizens of Hot Springs are delighted to know that our Clinic is now open, and medical attention is only a few steps away. Dr. James R. Norton and family, formerly of Spruce Pine, are now residents of Hot Springs and all are happy that they are here. The Clinic was officially opened Jan. 1, and it appears that the folks there are busy as bees. Drop by and welcome these fine folks to our community.

Grapevine HD Club Met Here

For Christmas Party

Kenneth man second visited the HD Club met for and Mrs. Party in the REA Mag in Marshall, Dec. 21, at p. m., with Mrs. Addie Martin, Mrs. Faye Calloway and Mrs. Jack Martin as hostesses. There were gay holiday decorations, a lovely tree and a friendly greeting for all. The meeting was called to order by our president, Mrs. Hazel Proffitt. We were very happy to have her with us this Christmas, since two Christmas masses before our greetings went to her in a hospital. Our devotions were given by Miss Faye Hensley, reading from Luke 2:14, and prayer was by Miss Joyce Gosnell. Mrs. Wallin, our home agent, welcomed all and gave an interesting talk on keeping Christmas Christian. She led the group in singing several of the best loved Christmas Carols. Under her direction, stories, songs or scenes were acted out by different groups until the other groups guessed the meaning of what they were doing. This being a family affair, we were all young and old alike, bursting with excitement, anxious to know what was waiting us, banked under the tree. Everybody brought a gift, so everyone would receive a gift. The club members at this party revealed who their Secret Pals were. After many 'thank you's' were said, with lots of oh's and ah's, and "I just couldn't guess who my secret pal was," lovely Christmas gifts were spread on the table and delicious holiday refreshments were served to the 45 present. The hostesses were Mrs. Addie Martin, Mrs. Faye Calloway and Mrs. Jack Martin. The following enjoyed the bountiful treat:

Mrs. Ethel Wallin, Ruby Gosnell, Elene Hensley, Edna Gosnell, Faye Calloway, Dorothy Arrington, Hazel Proffitt, Kenneth Hensley, Sgt. Troy E. Martin, Carl E. Shook, Delbert Arrington, J. L. Martin, Misses Judy Gosnell, Glinda Wyatt, Brenda Banks, Loretta Gosnell, Janice Coates, Faye Hensley, Anna Lou Silver, Mrs. Anna Belle Silver, Bonnie Gosnell, Betty Lou Clark, Addie Martin, Glendia Martin, Kathleen Clark, Doris Roberts, James Arrington, Jack Martin, Bill Roberts, Robert Martin, Ronnie Hensley, Judy Ann Coates, Barbara Wild, Hilda Gosnell, Amelia Coates, Jayce Gosnell, Kaye Hensley, Shirley Bradley, Kathy Calloway, and Masters Allen Roberts, Dannie Martin, Michael Silver, David Martin, Brian Martin, Allan Arrington, Mary Agnes Arrington.

A lovely time was reported by all. It's with regrets we did not do more for our Club in '62, but with higher hopes for the New Year. We take this time to say may God bless every Home Maker in our land, for there is no place like home. Good bye for '62.

THE G. V. HD CLUB

Our next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. James H. Arrington January, 1963, 7 p. m., all visitors are welcome.

MRS. J. D. GOSNELL,
Publicity Chairman

overturns near Eads home. Four arrested following flare-up at Old Bull Creek Baptist Church.

January, 1956

Billy Ramsey, 21, of Marshall, killed by car in Mich., Dec. 30, 1955. Parking Meters to be enforced here. Fred Sams sells interest in Model Grocery. Marshall Baptist Church to be razed; new church planned. Dan Windsor new manager Watson's store here. Rev. John B. Link now pastor at Warrenton.

January, 1955

A. E. Leake, William Reeves begin new law firm here. F. Ray Frisby joins Sorensen Bent Wood Corp., here. Bookmobile endorsed for county. Connor Tweed escapes injury in wreck. Leo White Awarded Honorary Fellowship by Rocket Society. New soil conservation practice approved for county. Hugh Tilson speaks at Mars Hill HD meet. Marshall gymnasium delayed 60-90 days. Sons of Henry Clay Edwards making brilliant records at N. C. State. Bradburn announces MHS schedule.

Mrs. Myrtle Roberts, Former Forks Of Ivy Resident, Dies Friday

Mrs. Myrtle Roberts, 63, of Atlanta, Ga., died last Friday afternoon, Dec. 28, 1962 at her home. She was a former resident of the Forks of Ivy section of Buncombe County.

Surviving are one son, H. C. Roberts of Atlanta; three sisters, Mrs. Ethel McDonald of Asheville, Mrs. Katherine Holbrook of Weaverville, and Mrs. Alma Fite of Atlanta; three brothers, Plato Moss of Spartanburg, S. C., and G. M. and Marvin Moss of Weaverville.

Services were held at 2 p. m. today (Thursday) at Piney Mountain Baptist Church. Burial was in the church cemetery with nephews as pallbearers.

Holcombe Funeral Home was in charge.

With The Sick

Miss Emma Logan was dismissed from Greenville (Tenn.) Hospital after six weeks' treatment and is convalescing at Bluff. Mr. and Mrs. John B. Logan of Amboy, Illinois, are with her for the winter. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Palmer, Rome, Ga., are visiting their aunt for New Year holidays.

Miss Sarah Beth Richardson, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. E. Richardson of Way, Va., and formerly of Mars Hill, has been transferred to University Hospital, Charlottesville, Va., where she is undergoing treatment after being a patient in Memorial Mission Hospital for several weeks.

'STRANGE OBJECT' EXPLODES

Columbus, Ohio — Finding a strange-looking object in a building at a golf course where he works, Carl Whalen, 14, used a hammer and nail to pry it open. The resulting explosion sent him to a hospital, rather seriously injured. The object — a dynamite cap.

IF IN NEED OF

Letterheads
Envelopes
Statements
Visiting Cards
Business Cards
Promisory Notes
Chattel Mortgages
Warranty Deeds
State Warrants
Land Posters

Contact
THE
NEWS-RECORD
MARSHALL, N. C.

Married Dec. 28

Mrs. Lynwood H. Hill

Former Mars Hill Man Marries In Jonesboro

The wedding of Miss Nancy Ann Sherkey and Lynwood Harold Hill took place Friday, December 28, at 7 p. m., in Sulphur Springs Methodist Church in Jonesboro, Tennessee.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Walker Sherkey of RFD 2, Jonesboro. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hill, also of RFD 2, Jonesboro, formerly of Mars Hill, N. C.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Herschel Davidson and nuptial music was presented by Miss Sandra Lee Deakins, cousin of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of taffeta and imported lace, a waist length veil attached to a pearl headpiece and carried white roses on a white Bible.

Her cousin, Miss Mary Kathryn Good, maid of honor, was attired in street length red taffeta and carried a white carnation nosegay. Miss Donna Louise Ferguson, another cousin, was bridesmaid. She was in sapphire blue and had white carnations.

Bob Mason of Kingsport served as best man and Dale Ford, Mack Carden, Sheridan Ferguson and Gary Rowe, both cousins of the bride, ushered.

The bride's mother chose beige brocade with matching accessories and a green carnation corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was dressed in peacock blue crepe, matching accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Mrs. Hill is a graduate of Sulphur Springs High School and East Tennessee State College. Mr. Hill, a graduate of Mars Hill High School, attended Mars Hill College and is also a graduate of East Tennessee State College.

They will live in Jonesboro after a wedding trip to Nashville.

Mrs. Hill teaches English and history in the Boones Creek High School and Mr. Hill, who formerly taught and coached in the Washington County school system, is employed with Mason-Dixon Company in Kingsport.

Mrs. Eva McDevitt Passes Wednesday; Funeral Friday

Mrs. Eva Reeves McDevitt, 77, of Rt. 4, Marshall, died at noon Wednesday, Jan. 2, 1963 in an Asheville hospital after a two-week illness.

Services will be at 2:30 p. m. Friday at Red Hill Free Will Baptist Church.

The service will be conducted by Miss Frances Radford and burial will be in the church cemetery with nephews serving as pallbearers.

Surviving are three sons, Roy and Johnny of Rt. 4, Marshall, and Calvin McDevitt of Miami, Fla.; one daughter, Mrs. R. B. Chandler of Marshall; two brothers, George Reeves Sr., and A. S. Reeves, both of Rt. 4, Marshall; one sister, Mrs. C. L. McDowell of Asheville; five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

She was the widow of J. H. McDevitt, who died in 1950. She was active in church work all her adult life.

The body will be taken from Bowman Funeral Home to the residence at 4 p. m. today (Thursday) and will remain there until placed in the church one hour prior to the service.

SHIFTS ROLE

Ware, Mass. — At 4 p. m. after Mrs. Samuel C. Fullam, a nurse at Mary Lane Hospital, assisted when Mrs. Frances H. Martin, of Brookfield, gave birth to her fourteenth child, the stork visited Mrs. Fullam, presenting her with a co farm is that of properly a daughter.

Helps Heal And Clear - Itchy Skin Rash!
Zemo—liquid or ointment—a doctor's antiseptic, promptly relieves itching, stops scratching and so helps heal and clear surface skin rashes. Buy Extra Strength Zemo for stubborn cases!

ALLANSTAND

MRS. RICHARD SHELTON
The Rev. Charles Heien, pastor of the Larger Parish, preached New Year's sermon at Allanstand last Sunday morning, using for the theme, "Resolutions." Not too many attended due to the very cold day. We hope to have him come again in the near future.

Mr. Dean Trimble returned to school at Cullohwhe last Monday after spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Trimble.

Mr. Kenneth Gahagan, of the Merchant Marines, is spending a few weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Gahagan. Mrs. Gahagan is improving from a broken leg.

Mr. Owen Fish, principal of Spring Creek High School, now residing in our community, was suddenly taken ill with lumbago last week. He was in bed for four days, and then was taken to the dentist with an abscessed tooth, which lasted the remainder of his Christmas vacation. We are wishing him a speedy recovery.

COULDN'T BREAK IN
Phoenix, Ariz. — Tony Mendoza, 42-year-old trusty, found it was easier to break out of jail than to break in. Mendoza sneaked out, got drunk and then tried to sneak back in. It didn't work.

YOU CAN GET RELIEF FROM HEADACHE PAIN

STANBACK gives you FAST relief from pains of headache, neuralgia, neuritis, and minor pains of arthritis, rheumatism. Because STANBACK contains several medically-approved and prescribed ingredients for fast relief, you can take STANBACK with confidence. Satisfaction guaranteed!

