

Applications Being Accepted For New Tobacco Allotments

ASCS Office Lists February 15 As Closing Date For Filing

The local ASCS office is now accepting applications for 1963 New farm burley tobacco allotments. Only bonified tobacco producers who own and will operate a farm on which no tobacco allotment is established for 1963 can qualify for a new allotment.

Ramsey said that the one requirement which barred most applicants from being eligible was that of deriving 50% or more of their income from the farm on which they are applying. He further explained that in determining the farm income for 1962, the uncorrected income from any previous tobacco allotment of the applicant is not.

As Thou Goest

Mars Hill, N. C. January 12, 1963

To the Editor, News-Record

Dear Mr. Story: I wonder if you could sometime publish this poem as a filler-in? I think it is comforting and helpful.

I almost envy the opportunity you editors have to influence lives for good. Oh, the power of the press!

I am enjoying my News-Record. I pass them on to other people after reading them.

Respectfully, MRS. L. L. VANN

The poem, with the above title, is published below:

"As thou goest, step by step, I will open up the way before thee."

-Prov. 4:12. (Heb. Trans.)

Child of My love, fear not the unknown tomorrow,

Dread not the new demand life makes of thee;

Thy ignorance doth hold no cause for sorrow

Since what thou knowest not is known to ME.

Thou canst not see today the hidden meaning

Of my command, but thou the light shalt gain;

Walk on in faith, upon My promise learning,

And AS THOU GOEST all shall be made plain.

One step thou seest - then go forward boldly

One step is far enough for faith to see;

Take that, and thy next duty shall be to lead thee.

For UP BY STEP the Lord is leading thee

Stand not in fear thy adversary's cunning;

Have every trial save to thee;

Thou shalt march on, all obstacles surmounting,

For I, the Strong, WILL OPEN UP THE WAY.

Wherefore go gladly to the task assigned thee,

Having My promise, needing nothing more

Than just to know, where'er the future find thee,

In all thy journeying I go before

MRS. J. W. HUFF, Correspondent

Mrs. Walter P. Smith and little son and daughter, who went with her husband and his parents on a trip to Texas at the beginning of the holidays, is expected to return this week-end. Mr. Smith returned for the college opening two weeks ago.

And Mrs. Harry Wells, who has been with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Duff, and their baby son in Raleigh, since Dec. 27, is expected to return this week-end, also. Mrs. R. V. Ebbs is recuperating at her home now from surgery which she underwent three weeks ago in an Asheville hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Plato Reese, who have both been ill recently, were able to make a trip to Charlotte last week-end to see their daughter, Miss Marian Reese.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Harris visited his son and family in Greenville, Tenn., week-end before last. Mrs. Harris was suffering from "the flu" last week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards and his mother and aunt, Mrs. Esie Edwards and Mrs. Clota Lippard went to Raleigh last Friday for the funeral on Saturday of Mr. W. F. Mitchell at Youngsville. His widow is the former Miss Irene Edwards, of Mars Hill, a niece of Mrs. Lippard and Mrs. Edwards.

Meet the first beginnings; look to the budding mischief before it has time to ripen to maturity.

Tax Return Signers Are Responsible

The taxpayer whose signature appears on his Federal tax return is responsible for the facts and figures in it. Mr. J. E. Wall, District Director of the Greensboro District Office, said this is true of the return is prepared with help from the U. S. Internal Revenue Service. And, he added, final date for filing that 1962 tax return is April 15.
