

TWO MINUTES WITH THE BIBLE

BY CORNELIUS B. STAM, PRES. BUREAU BIBLE SOCIETY CHICAGO 34, ILLINOIS

"PAUL THE PATTERN"

No conversion in sacred history is given so much attention as that of St. Paul. Besides the many references to it, we find three detailed accounts of it in the book of Acts. As Saul of Tarsus, the learned pharisee, he had led his nation and the world in rebellion against God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

St. Luke says: "As for Saul, he made havock of the church" (Acts 8:3). The believers at Damascus feared Saul's presence among them, saying: "Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name at Jerusalem?" (Acts 9:21). Paul himself later testified: "Many of the saints did I shut up in prison . . . and when they were put to death I gave my voice (vote) against them" (Acts 26:10). . . . beyond measure I persecuted the church of God and wasted it (laid it waste)" (Gal. 1:13).

There must have been an important reason why God saved this rebel leader. Clearly it was that He might make Paul, not only the herald, but the living example of "the exceeding riches of His grace" to sinners. Paul himself said:

"And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord . . . for . . . putting me into the ministry; who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious; but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly and in unbelief. And the Grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant . . . This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am chief. Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to those who should hereafter believe on Him to life everlasting." — (I Timothy 1:12-16.)

NEWS FOR VETERANS

Here are authoritative answers by the Veterans Administration to questions from former servicemen and their families:

Q — How many U. S. veterans are still living, and how does this total compare with the all-time high?

A — On January 1, 1963, there were 22,225,000 U. S. veterans of all wars still living. This compares with the all-time high of 22,735,000, which was reached in March 1958.

Q — As the widow of a World War II veteran with two children, I understand WW II widows and orphans are now eligible to receive pensions on the same basis as World War I dependents. What are the conditions for eligibility and how much would the pension amount to?

A — The WW II deceased veteran no longer is required to have had a service-connected disability at the time of his death. Your income must be less than $3,000 a year. Your pension would range from $25 to $60 a month, adding $15 a month for each child.

Q — As a veteran with a GI home loan, I understand I may make additional payments to retire the loan faster than my contract stipulates. What is the minimum extra payment I may make?

A — You may pay an additional $100 with your monthly payment or an additional monthly payment, whichever is the smaller payment. (Veterans living in or near Madison County who wish further information about their benefits should write or visit the VA Office at Asheville, N. C.)

FOR THE PEOPLE

"A nation that can afford all the comforts of our modern society cannot afford at the same time to perpetuate poverty through having children grow up ill-fed, ill-clothed, and ill-housed; nor can we punish children for the failures of their parents."

—Dr. Ellen Winston, Commissioner

In one of the Deep South states lives a successful engineer who several years ago married a girl from a prominent family. They have two children and the family is financially and socially well adjusted and happy.

This engineer is a former North Carolina boy who was for several years a recipient of aid to dependent children from the county department of public welfare.

The boy's father died when he was young. However, an older brother who lived in the home and who had a job was able to support his mother and the younger brother for several years. Then the older brother was killed in an accident. The mother was unable to support herself and the remaining son for she was suffering from high blood pressure and other health problems. She tried renting rooms in her home, but her doctor stated that she was not able physically to do the necessary work involved.

The mother applied for assistance at the county department of public welfare and was eligible to receive aid to dependent children. The young son was a good stu-

UNIQUE VALENTINE POEM APPRECIATED

The following Valentine poem, written by Mrs. Ralph Ramsey, of Marshall RFD 6, was deeply appreciated by H. L. Story, of Asheville, formerly of Marshall, when he received it at his home on Valentine's Day:

H. L. STORY

I know an elderly gentleman,
Whose manner is quiet and refined.
He is at all time honest,
And always very kind.

His life has set a standard;
Would be hard for many to reach.
I am sure he would tell you always,
The Golden Rule to teach.

He has served our country well,
As the news he did truthfully tell.
He always stood for the right,
And wrong he fought with all his might.

I can't forget his kindness
To everyone he met;
But he isn't through;
He sets an example yet.
Although he is retired,
He is still very much admired.

Dear Mr. Story:
The Ralph Ramseys wish to send this to you as a little Valentine Day Greeting.

Best wishes.
