Proud of Catch

A mighty proud youngster is 10-year-old Sigsbee Duck, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. Otis Duck of Mars Hill, who boated this 77-pound wahoo in the Gulf Stream off Grand Bahama Island. The battling piscatorial prize stands 5 feet, 10 inches, quite a catch for a 10-year-old. Sigsbee's sisters, Rosalind, 16, and Linda, 14, watched the feat with keen admiration.

Laurel 2nd Graders Visit Marshall Mon.

Mrs. Emily Wallin's 2nd grad- students and Mrs. Rosa Lee Frank- lin's 2nd grade students, numbering 41, visited several interesting places in Marshall Monday. The students rode to Marshall on the Carolina Special.

Included in the tour were visits to The News-Record office, Madison County Library, and Court- house.

The children enjoyed a picnic dinner at the home of Mrs. Frank- lin before returning to the school.
