TODAY'S meditation

Read Matthew 18:7-14

If a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the mountains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? (Matthew 18:12).

A small boy strayed from a vacation camp and became lost. When found, he asked his mother, "What would have happened if you had not found me?"

There could, of course, be no positive answer. We know the search would have continued, the parents would have worried and grieved, and memories of the tragedy would have lingered with those who loved him. Probably someone would have felt the guilt of negligence, too.

A similar question comes to mind concerning the lost—those without Christ. What will happen if they are not rescued?

As professed Christians, it is our duty to search out those who are "out of the fold" and lead them to salvation. It will take time, prayer, patience, even personal sacrifice. We are accountable for carrying on the work of our Lord. Our Christian duty demands it.

PRAYER: Our heavenly Father, help us to understand the great importance of spreading the gospel among men on earth. Give us wisdom, courage, and strength to lead others on to the path of righteousness. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Bringing precious souls to God is every Christian's sacred duty.

Consider This—

We talk about our pilgrim blood, Our ancestors land high and unworldly. A mountain stream that ends in mud, Bespeaks of tenants foolish and unworthy.

People who know it all get just as much love as anyone else—only most of it is home-made.
