Walnut Group Enjoys Trip To Myrtle Beach, S. C.

About twenty people from this county and also from Asheville returned Saturday from Myrtle Beach, S. C., where they spent a few days as guests of Jasper Ramsey, formerly of Madison County, who is now a successful businessman at the coastal city.

Mr. Ramsey chartered the bus for the group and extended them the "all-expense-paid" trip. While there, Mr. Ramsey entertained the group several times, calling it a "family reunion". He also invited several guests and relatives from Myrtle Beach as well as other states to share in the "reunion".

While in Myrtle Beach, the group was quartered at the Tropical Motel which is owned by Mr. Ramsey.

Among those enjoying the trip from Asheville, were Mrs. Nina

Magill, Mrs. Cornelia Allen, Mrs. Neta Adams, Mrs. Mae Ledbetter, Mr. and Mrs. Decker Dover, Mrs. Amy Dover Wolfe, Mrs. Virginia Dover Wolfe, From Marshall and Walnut, Mrs. Julia Ramsey, Mrs. Cora Ramsey, Miss Tennie Ramsey, Mrs. Pauline Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. Jeter Waldroup of Knoxville and Howard Enslay of Gaffney, South Carolina.

Bloodmobile Here Oct. 1

Due to a misunderstanding, it was announced in last week's issue that the Red Cross Bloodmobile would be in Marshall on Tuesday of this week. Further information after the paper had been published revealed that the Bloodmobile will be in Marshall on Tuesday, October 1. The unit will be here from 2:45 to 6:45 and will be at the French Broad Electric Membership Coop Building.

Make plans now to visit the REA Building on October 1, and donate a pint of blood.

NO SPEED LIMIT

Topeka, Kan. — While it has been decided that the Kansas turnpike, a 236-mile four-lane toll highway recently opened will have no speed limit, drivers will be "hauled down" if they exceed 80 miles an hour, and it will be illegal to drive less than 40 miles an hour unless bad weather or other factors make it advisable to go slower.

Frank E. Sprinkle Passes In Michigan; Services Here Today

Frank E. Sprinkle, 60, of Detroit, Mich., a native of Madison County, died Friday night, September 6, 1963, in Detroit after an extended illness.

The body was brought to Marshall for service and burial.

Surviving are the widow, Mrs. Edna Rynn Sprinkle; the mother, Mrs. Alice Sprinkle of Marshall; and two sisters, Miss Dorothy Sprinkle, of Marshall, and Mrs. Charlie Rigby of Detroit.

Funeral services will be held today (Thursday) at 2:00 in the Enon Baptist Church.

The Rev. Paul Morrow and the Rev. Lester Crayton will officiate. Burial will be in the church cemetery. Active pallbearers will be Clay Rice, Ralph Ramsey, Vernon Rynn, Glen West, Guy Rice and Lloyd Slagle.

Bowman Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

"Uncle Jay" Roberts Honored Sunday At Hopewell Picnic

Between 50-60 members of the Hopewell Baptist Church Sunday School enjoyed a picnic to Silver Mines, Hot Springs, Sunday afternoon.

The picnic was given in honor of W. J. (Uncle Jay) Roberts' birthday and the ladies of the church baked a large birthday cake for Mr. Roberts. He also received many useful gifts in token of his faithfulness and activities in the Hopewell church.

"Uncle Jay," who is teacher of the Men's Bible Class and is always willing to do any other chores asked, has not missed but three Sundays in the past ten years.

Another admired practice of "Uncle Jay" is that every Sunday he brings a bag of candy and divides the candy among the children present. Needless to say, he is also quite popular with children as well as adults.

Mrs. Roberts is also faithful and regularly attends church at Hopewell.

The Rev. J. A. Green is pastor of the church and Leonard Baker is superintendent of the Sunday School.

"We have had several fine picnics this summer but the one Sunday honoring Mr. Roberts was the best yet," Mr. Baker stated.

Enters WCC

Charles N. Holt, a graduate of the 1963 class at Spring Creek High School, left Monday for Western Carolina College. Charles is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Reece Holt. He was employed this summer at Pacific Mills at Hot Springs, where his mother, Louise, has been working for the past eight years.

Miss Melba Willis Becomes The Bride Of Jay E. Payne

Miss Melba Willis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Willis Sr., and Jay E. Payne, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Payne, were united in Marriage Saturday evening, Sept. 7, 1963, at 7:30 in Calvary Baptist Church of Mars Hill. The Rev. W. G. Russell, pastor of the church officiated. Miss Nancy Russell was pianist and Mr. Doyle Cody was soloist. Mrs. Don Hall attended the bride's book.

C. N. Willis Jr., gave his sister in marriage. She wore a formal gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over bridal satin with a tiered skirt. Her veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls and sequins and she wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom and carried a white Bible centered with an orchid with long white streamers.

Mrs. Henry H. Demako of Arlington, Va., was her sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Terry Lee and Miss Rhonda Jean Adkins of Weaverville, nieces of the bride. They wore ballerina length dresses of pastel taffeta with matching headress, and carried bouquets of matching flowers.

Doyle Radford of Candler, cousin of the groom, was best man, with Neal and Clayton Willis serving as ushers.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Edwards. Mrs. Lloyd Cassida, sister of the bride, and Mrs. T. D. Hicks, aunt of the groom, assisted.

For the wedding both Mrs. Willis and Mrs. Payne wore blue sheath dresses with white accessories and pink carnation corsages.

Mrs. Payne is owner and operator of the Mars Hill Beauty Shop and Mr. Payne is employed by American Enka Corp.

After a short wedding trip, for which the bride wore a beige sheath dress of linen with white accessories and the orchid from
