MRS. HUBERT FANGLE, Correspondent

Mr. Lon Parker, who lives at Kingsport, Tenn., is in a very serious condition at this time. He's been in bad health for several months. He is a native of Madison County. He was visited Friday of last week by his brother and nephew, Messrs. Will and Rochelle

Parker. Several people attended the funeral of Mrs. Cora Pinkerton, who passed away Friday at her home. Burial was at Roaring Fork. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allison were visited Sunday by the following children: Mr. and Mrs. Jer-

A RECITAL by David Lynch, Sunday, Sept. 8, on Mars Hill College's $100,000 pipe organ opened the college's 1963-64 cultural events series. The public was invited. Lynch, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Lynch, are members of the college administrative staff, is well known in Western North Carolina music circles. During six summers of his high school and college career he served as organist and choir director at All Souls Episcopal Church in Biltmore. He was valedictorian of the 1958 class at Mars Hill High School.

Below is an expression of thanks which Mr. and Mrs. Smith requested to be published:

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to our friends and relatives who stood by us after our darling little son passed away on August 10, 1963. Even though we may not be able to thank each one of them, we want each of them to know that their kind words and deeds will never be forgotten and will dwell with us as long as we shall live.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith Jr. and the rest of the family of Randy Eugene Smith.

PITFALL

Enthusiasm is an asset, but it loses its value the minute it turns into recklessness.
