HEARD AND SEEN

By "POP"

Naturally, I had a wonderful time Tuesday night at the "Appreciation Supper" given by Neill Ross and Pacific Mills — not only was I pleased pink with the delicious meal and the kind remarks.

She is a graduate of Spring ceiling with joy when Neill presented me with material for a suit — I'll guarantee that it'll be the finest suit I've ever had — after the supper, we all went up to the plant and Neill, Harry Upchurch and Homer Foster directed us on a tour through the vast plant — we really had a wonderful time — John Corbett scared me to death when he said that Neill expected me to speak for 30-40 minutes — but that wasn't the worst I was scared — when being measured for the suit, Ed Niles (I think) slipped out to my car and "snatched" the suit material — luckily, I soon found it — speaking of tailoring a suit, John Corbett has a talent I didn't know about — he's an expert "suit-measure-upper" — just hope it fits ME and not HIM — Mrs. Ross, Mrs. Upchurch, Mrs. Foster and the other ladies are so friendly — it was a thrill to be around them — some of those present wished that Newspaper Week came every month instead of once a year — Roy and Dot Reeves rode down to Hot Springs with us and Roy and I talked football 99% of the time — Dot finally asked us to change the subject but it wasn't but a few seconds until it was football again — I had another fine time last Saturday night at the S&W Cafeteria where the intermediates of the Walnut RTU were honored for being Standard two consecutive years — Jeter P. Ramsey, leader of the group, is certainly to be commended for his fine work with the boys and girls — members of the department presented him with a book as a token of appreciation — Miss Katherine Grayson's talk was most inspiring — Bill and I appreciate being invited, Jeter, and I hope the group will remain Standard next year — it's a fine group of girls and boys — another person who deserves a great deal of credit is Joan Hollifield, sponsor of the group — in closing, let me again say that our county has lost one of its finest citizens, Father A. V. Graves, who this week left for Washington, D. C., where he will be associated with Georgetown University (see Editorial) — we wish for him continued health and happiness.

Local Editor Is Honored At Supper At Hot Springs Tues.

Officials of Pacific Mills and businessmen of Hot Springs and their wives participated in a supper Tuesday night at the Court Restaurant in Hot Springs honoring Jim Story, editor of The News-Record, for services rendered Madison County for the past 17 years he has been editor and publisher of the local newspaper.

The occasion coincided with National Newspaper Week which is being observed this week.

In addition to the Hot Springs citizens, Marshall businessmen and civic leaders and their wives attended.

Neill Ross, manager of Pacific Mills, an affiliate of Burlington Industries, Inc., presided, and in introducing Mr. Story, reiterated the importance of a newspaper in the county and remarked that "... this expression of appreciation is well overdue our county editor. He often hears criticism and seldom receives praise for his efforts."

Mr. Story then reviewed the history of The News-Record and told of the advancements made since his father, H. L. Story, acquired the newspaper in 1924. He expressed his gratitude to the citizens of Madison County, the advertisers, subscribers and correspondents for their faithfulness throughout the years.

Following his talk, John Corbett, president of the Marshall Merchants Association and president of the Marshall Lions Club, spoke in behalf of the Marshall citizens in expressing their appreciation for the "fair and unbiased" publication of The News-Record for the past 39 years under the same management.

Mr. Ross then presented Mr. Story with material, made by Burlington Industries, for a suit.

The group then toured the Hot Springs plant which was highly entertaining and enjoyed.
