BASKETBALL TEAM TAKING SHAPE AT MHS

"As a whole, I feel Marshall boys will have the best team since I've been here; but of course, we will lose some," stated Ed Morton, coach of the boys' basketball team at Marshall High School.

With eight returning lettermen from last year's squad, twenty-six other boys came out at the start of practice, which is the largest number to come out since Coach Morton took over the team. The squad has been cut to 28, and the spirit is high on the squads. With the first game scheduled for December 3 with a strong North Buncombe team, Morton realizes his team will be handicapped, as other teams were practicing somewhat earlier than his team, due to the football schedule. Fundamentals are being stressed, with full-scale scrimmage time fast approaching.

Returning from last year's team are starters: Tommy Nix and Mickey Tweed, co-captains; Luther Worley and Ralph Candler; Arnold Fox, Eddie Henderson, Ronny Gladden and Larry West.

in practice are Jackie Ramsey, Jackie Pegg, Buddy Ramsey and Danny Garrett, the last two having played with Walnut 8th graders last year.

Vota Vita Class Met Here Tuesday

The Vota Vita Sunday School Class of the Marshall Baptist Church met Tuesday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the church, with Mrs. Charlie Sawyer, class president, as hostess. The devotions were given by Mrs. Sawyer, assisted by Mrs. Hettie R. Blankenship.

It was announced that the class would again sell Christmas Cards and gift wrappings as has been the custom for several years. The group voted to make the usual donation to the Christmas Building Fund offering; and plans for the annual class Christmas Party were discussed.

Those attending were Mrs. Lis-
