

INTRODUCING THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES

In The November 3, 1964 Election

These Candidates Stand For
Sane, Safe, Secure
Government and Progress

Register
October 10, 17, 24
VOTE
REPUBLICAN On November 3, 1964

Governor

Robert Gavin

Congress

Clyde M. Roberts

State Senate

William C. Chambers

Representative

FRANCES C. RAMSEY (Mrs. R. R. Ramsey) came to Madison County in 1928 as Home Demonstration Agent. Her B.S. (plus graduate work) in home economics from Peabody College, Nashville, Tenn., led to teaching at Conway College, Ark., and Anderson College, S. C. Served as H.D. Agent for six years in county. Resigned to marry Robert R. Ramsey of Walnut, former sheriff and state representative.

Business experience: Manager of office, Asheville Livestock Market; Ramsey's General Merchandise and Feed Store at Walnut; Helped build up Grade A Dairy and tobacco farm. Aid. husband in general assembly in 1953.

Mrs. Ramsey is a member of Walnut Methodist Church; Marshall WSCS; Madison County Farm Bureau; Secretary Madison County Dairy Association; Past chairman Easter Seal Society; Past vice-president of local Women's Good Government League; Leader of Walnut Brownie Girl Scout Troop.

Tax Collector

JIM F. CRAINE is qualified to serve as Tax Collector of Madison County. He is a successful farmer of the Brush Creek community near Walnut. His education was received at Walnut High School. Mr. Craine is a Master Mason, a member of French Broad Lodge No. 292. He has served as Walnut Township chairman for the Republican Party and on the Marshall Township Farm Committee. He is fifty-three years of age and a member of the Red Hill Free Will Baptist Church. His wise farm management practices are an indication of how well he will serve as our next county Tax Collector, in which capacity he can use his prudence and wisdom to good advantage for the people of Madison County. He is a life long Republican. He is married to the former Hazel Jeanette Beck and they have three children.

Commissioner

RON SPRINKLE, candidate for Madison County commissioner, is in the retail grocery business in Marshall, owner and operator of Model Grocery.

Mr. Sprinkle is a graduate of Jefferson City (Tennessee) High School and attended Carson Newman College in Jefferson City.

He is a World War II veteran and is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars (VFW), and the American Legion. He is a Past Commander of VFW.

Member of Marshall Merchants Association; Past President, Marshall Merchants Association; Member Marshall Lions Club; Chamber of Commerce. Member Marshall Baptist Church.

Commissioner

BILL SILVER is a graduate of Mars Hill High School. Silver pursued his education at Western Carolina Teacher's College where he received a B.S. degree in Business Education, with a minor in English. He served for three and one-half years in active Navy duty during World War II as a Navy Pilot, seeing action in the South Pacific; was discharged as a Senior Lieutenant in the Naval Reserve. Silver married the former Claudia Avis Hendren of Pacific Beach, California; they have three children. He has led an active church and civic life. His civic activities include: Membership in French Broad Lodge No. 292 AF&M of Marshall, Past Master and Past District Deputy Grand Master of 54 Masonic District, 32° Scottish Rite Mason, member of Membership Committee and Ambassador for Mars Hill, a Shriner, member of Robinson-Carter Post No. 435 of American Legion of Mars Hill, member and deacon of Mars Hill Baptist Church.

Commissioner

DOYLE B. CODY, prominent farmer and dairyman of the California Creek section of Madison County.

Attended Mars Hill and Western Carolina College, Cullowhee.

Mr. Cody not only is an outstanding demonstration farmer but is also a talented musician. He is a member of the California Creek Baptist Church and is music director in the French Broad Missionary Baptist Association.

He not only owns a large dairy but also operates the farm.

Cody is a veteran of the United States Army where he served two years.

He is married to the former Miss Judy Phillips.

Auditor

BILL ZINK is well qualified to serve as County Auditor. He graduated from Lee Edwards High School after attending Marshall High School. He received further education at Warren Wilson Jr. College at Swannanoa, N. C., and at Mars Hill Jr. College. He served with the U. S. Merchant Marines. Zink is a former owner of Marshall Tiro and Recapping, and a co-owner of the Madison Oil Company at Marshall. He is self-employed as owner and operator of Bill's Tire Supply at Mars Hill. He is married to former Madison County Auditor, Miriam Eller, and they have five children. Zink has been active in civic affairs, having served as president of the Marshall Lions Club, Zone Chairman of Zone 4 of District 31-A, Lions International. Also, he has rendered service as Deputy District Governor of District 31-A of Lions International. Zink is a member of Mars Hill Baptist Church.

Register of Deeds

CHAUNCEY METCALF is qualified to serve as Madison County Register of Deeds. He is the son of the late John Metcalf of the Petersburg section of the county. In 1929 he married Miss Ella Callahan. They have raised a family of six children. He is a lifelong farmer and follows the carpenter trade. Mr. Metcalf has long been active in church and civic affairs. He is presently the Master of French Broad Lodge No. 292 at Marshall and is chairman of the Board of Deacons of Long Branch Baptist Church. Mr. Metcalf is a member of one of the pioneer families of this county. His careful and thorough approach will stand in good stead in managing the Register of Deeds office.

Vote
Republican
On November 3, 1964

NOTICE TO ALL REPUBLICANS

Be Sure To Register

At Your Polling Place

On The Following Saturdays: October 10, 17, 24

This Advertisement Sponsored By

Madison County Republican Executive Committee

BRUCE BRIGGS, Chairman