INSTRUCTORS WANTED — Do you have an honest-to-goodness interest in helping our youth? If so, please answer this advertisement informing us what you would really like to instruct to up-grade Western North Carolina's youth so they may be helped on their way to a more productive life in our highly industrial and manufacturing complex.

We are starting an Industry Apprentice Course and need 40 men and women with college degrees or equivalent education to help us train the youth of this section in science and mechanics for our expanding Space Age within the scope of weather, materials, fuels and metals. We will have to start at the grass roots. Our plan should help every young person who graduates from our course to become technically trained with sufficient knowledge to go out into the world and carry the dignity that goes with skill, trade and technology.

Write and tell us what you are qualified to instruct. Further, if you are a retired school teacher, professor or scientist between the ages of 50 and 70, we have a place for you. Give us your complete resume, stating your qualifications and salary expected. The hours can be arranged from 4 hours per day to 8 hours per day, 5 days a week. If you are within a 25 mile radius of Asheville, we will transport you to our industrial science center complex. Write in care of The News-Record, Marshall. 10-22c dering flags on all government buildings flown at half mast. Hoover's body will lie in state for two days at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church on Park Avenue. Then it will be taken to Washington for a service in the rotunda of the Capitol, where another president, the assassinated John F. Kennedy, received funeral honors only 11 months ago.

Burial will be in a national park on the site of a small cottage where Hoover was born in West Branch, Iowa, in 1874 — destined to become the first American president from west of the Mississippi River.

His life had spanned 90 years and three months. Only one other president lived longer. He was John Adams, the nation's second chief executive, who was 90 years and eight months old when he died.

Gavin Speaks—

 the Marshall school. Clyde M. Roberts, GOP candidate for Congress, and a native and resident of Marshall, spoke briefly before introducing Gavin.

Gavin was greeted with loud applause and cheering as he started his remarks by urging the election of Mr. Roberts and Mrs. Frances C. Ramsey . . . and the entire Republican slate.

He commented about the recent "black-eye" situation in Madison County and said it was an "indictment against the entire state for 64 years of one-party rule." He added, " . . . we are going to change the election laws so as to have fair and honest elections."

He spoke of our part of the state as "poverty stricken" and stated that the present governor was indicting the state.

He also voiced his desire for an improved school system throughout the state.

He also stressed the need for better roads in Madison County and western North Carolina and said road improvement was imperative for increased industry. "It's time for a change, it's time for a new start, it's time for a new administration," he told the cheering crowd.

In concluding his talk he said he was in favor of tax relief and closed his remarks by saying, "I am her candidacy."

Cats Stop Mars Hill—

 derson intercepted Bill Smarr's pass on the Western four-yard line and returned it 16. Moments later Ronnie McGraw of Mars Hill retaliated by intercepting one of quarterback Williams' aeriels on the Mars Hill 43. Neither team could do much with respective breaks.

Western's first touchdown came on an electrifying 60-yard pass play from Williams to end Roger Cox midway of the second period. Van Stayton kicked the point and the Catamounts were out front, 7-0.

Later in the same period Western mounted an 85-yard drive which was terminated when Jim Fortenberry crashed over from the one, his third carry of the drive which totaled 21 yards. The drive also featured a 28-yard pass from Williams to Cox. Van Stayton kicked the point and the Cats led at intermission, 14-0.

will do all in my power to take off the sales tax on basic foods."

Following Gavin's talk, W. C. Chambers was introduced by Bruce Briggs, County GOP Chairman. Chambers urged the voters to "go Republican all the way."

Following this, various county GOP candidates were recognized and Mrs. Ramsey spoke briefly in her candidacy.

ley is also well healed with other fast backs with Casteloe being a threat every time he lugs the leather. This, in addition to a fine blocking and hard charging line, is a big challenge for any team but Marshall is ready to accept that challenge.

Looking at the season's records, game totals reveal that Marshall has only scored 64 points while allowing the opponents 89 points for a 2-4-1 record. The Wildcats have scored 175 points while holding the opposition to a mere 53 points, for a 6-1-0 record.

Sometimes records mean a great deal to a team in being established a favorite but there are such things as upsets — remember, Virginia defeated Army last week. And the Tornadoes are hungry for a win. It should be a most interesting game and a capacity crowd is expected to be on hand.

Should the Tornadoes upset the Wildcats, it would throw the county title into a three-way tie between Mars Hill, Marshall and Hot Springs. And that would just add to the already mysterious tricks and bounces of the pitskin

Webb Speaks—

ville, National Committeeman was guest speaker for the dinner. He spoke against Goldwater irresponsibility, and stressed unity in the Democratic Party. He reminded the group that Dan K. Moore was the first mountain man candidate for governor in 100 years, and "You'd be missing a golden opportunity for the western part of the state if you fail to elect him," he added.

Webb was introduced by Mrs. Earl Robinson, vice chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee. Mrs. George B. Shupe, president of the Democratic Women's Club, presided. Joe Penland, J., president of the Teen Dem Club, gave the invocation.

All county candidates were present and recognized at the dinner as were the state and national nominees. Heads of county boards, precinct officials, and others were introduced.

The banquet meal was prepared by Mrs. Jack Lunsford, assisted by Mrs. Blanche Henderson, Mrs. Clarence Roberts, Mrs. Barbara Henderson, Mrs. Gene Ward, and Mrs. Cheever Ramsey. Teen Dem Club members, dressed in red, white, and blue, served the meal.

Others assisting in arrangements were Mrs. Marvin McClure, jewelry sales; Mrs. Wanda Gosnell, registration; Mrs. Celola Ramsey, decorations; Mrs. Jerry Rice, flowers; and Jewell Ball, program booklet.

Those attending were reminded of the free annual fish fry to be held Saturday, October 24, at the Marshall cafeteria, beginning at 6 o'clock. All Democrats are cordially invited. The 11th District Congressional rally was also announced for October 27 at Canton, with a free dinner being served, each during the past decade or longer. The National allocations for ACP funds is broken down to states and counties on basis of their needs for which the number and acreage of farms are major determining factors.

County ACP—

Ramsey said that Madison County had recently been notified of a $101,518.00 ACP allocation for next year which represents an increase of approximately $7000.00 over her $94,639.00 allocation for the current program year. He explained that this federal cost-sharing with farmers in helping them to carry out approved soil, water, and forestry practices was a partnership deal between the taxpayers of America and the farmer with each bearing about 50% of the cost and with the farmer also bearing the cost of the labor on most practices.

In conclusion, Ramsey said that the county ACP also played a very important role in the economy of Madison County in that most farmers purchased the conservation materials needed to carry out their approved farm practices from local business firms within the county and that the total purchases by both the farmers and government would run near $275,000.00 each year.

beginning at 5:30 o'clock, following which gubernatorial candidate Dan K. Moore and candidate for Congress, Roy A. Taylor, will speak.

CLARIFIED EDITORS

COUNTY IN GOOD FINANCIAL CONDITION

As commissioners, we would like to point out that our county is in good, sound financial condition.

Our county has NO BONDED INDEBTEDNESS except at Marshall and Hot Springs School Districts where our people approved bond issues.

As we have announced before, we invite anyone interested in inspecting our county records to visit the courthouse where records are open at all times to the public.

We wish to state that all actions taken by this board have been done for the betterment of our county.

FOOD SURPLUS PROGRAM

We wish to clarify rumors being circulated throughout the county that the FOOD SURPLUS PROGRAM will be discontinued.

As far as we are concerned, we intend to continue the Food Surplus Program in the future.

We believe this program has been most beneficial to thousands of our citizens and it would be unwise to discontinue this worthwhile program.

INDUSTRY

We have also done everything possible to attract INDUSTRY to Madison County. In order to do this we have cooperated with all civic groups and promoted the formation of the Madison County Industrial Commission and the Madison County Planning Board.

VETERAN'S SERVICE

The establishment of the Madison County Veteran's Service Office in the courthouse is also a stepping stone to better conditions in our county. It was through the efforts of this board of commissioners that this office was made possible. Since its establishment on May 1, 1964, the county has received more than $34,906 in monetary benefits. We are proud to have been instrumental in securing this for our county and congratulate Don West, County Service Officer, on the splendid job he is doing.

TWIN I BEAM
 INDEPENDENT SUSPENSION

New easy ride . . . plus big-truck durability! Front wheels operate independently . . . forged I-beam axles . . . forged radius rods for lasting wheel alignment.

Only Ford Dealers have it!

Two front axles make this one the toughest, smoothest riding pickup ever! Here's why: each wheel works independently on its own axle—a forged steel I-beam axle like the big trucks use! Forged steel radius rods lock in wheel alignment! Two axles share the load, and because each axle works independently a bump at one wheel won't move the other. Add heavy-duty coil springs and you've got it . . . the smoothest riding, toughest independent front end in any pickup. Come on in and see for yourself how smooth a tough Twin-I-Beam Ford pickup really is.
