 its $1100 goal; Marshall's total figure, yet incomplete, ranges something over $700 and Hot Springs has not yet reported.
 "This is an urgent appeal to everyone," Wade Huey, Fund Drive Chairman, stated. "If we are to continue the all important blood program as well as the other services, we must raise our part," he remarked.
 People who attempt to cash flattery find it's a forgery.

Ed Niles

 Robert Chandler.
 On accepting the presidency, Niles told the group that he was honored to be given the post. He highly commended the officers for their work during the past year and challenged the members to do even more next year.
 "The Association is only as strong as its weakest link," he said, and also stated that "the Association can improve itself by reviewing the mistakes learned during the past." He emphasized the need for regular meetings and full participation. "We must continue working for each other in a concerted effort for improvements and projects for our town," he remarked.
 A canopy over the sidewalks was again discussed and experts will be invited to give details on the costs of such a project at a future meeting. The improvement of sidewalks was also discussed.
 Early planning for next Christmas, including the decorations on Main Street, was aired and the cooperation of the Marshall Garden Club will again be asked.
 Other topics discussed included an annual Christmas Pageant, a summer promotion, highway improvements, and local parking problems.
 The members voted to meet monthly at the Rock Cafe at 7 o'clock on each second Tuesday night.

 the French Broad River basin. Hot Springs is well on the way in starting a like system and will sign final contracts this week so the work can start. Hot Springs has already secured federal grants and that system is expected to be ready by late summer.

 wheat and feed grain programs may divert either feed grains or wheat under the program's substitution plan, and in this case, the diversion payments will be based on the actual crop reduced. Under this plan, any acreage credited to diversion from feed grains in excess of the signed intention would be paid for at the minimum feed grain diversion rate.
 The feed grain program for 1965 is basically the same as in 1964. It is voluntary and applies to corn, grain sorghum and barley. Participating farmers may qualify for diverted acreage payments and price-support payments, and they will be eligible for price-support loans on their corn, grain sorghum and barley.
 Ramsey points out that signing up is a necessary first step in taking part in the "feed grain" program. The sign-up covers the period of February 8 through March 26. Farmers may sign up at the ASCS office in Marshall.

 you a copy of a bill that was recently ratified by the General Assembly. My purpose in sending you this copy is so that you may be able to study it and have it in case there is any misunderstanding as to what the duties and powers are of our Tax Board.
 I would also like to point out that the present Board of Commissioners was duly elected by voters of Madison County on November 3, 1964, thereby making them individually responsible as Commissioners, and they are assuming their duties, as such.
 Madison County is no longer a rubber-stamp government.
 Success can't be met halfway — hustle and overtake it.

Moore Plans
 that would increase taxes.
 "I think that under our present tax structure," he said, "we could use the additional penny tax which we imposed for the Scott road bond issue, which will be retired next year (1965). Then I think we would finance a substantial bond issue without any addition taxation."
 Informed sources said Moore had proceeded along this line, and that the $300 million road bond issue he will ask the legislature to submit to the voters will not increase taxes.
 Moore has insisted all along that good roads are essential to the future growth of North Carolina.
 "Our state highway system," he said during the campaign, "has been a major contributor to the advances we have made in industry, agriculture, and education. We must continue to build and maintain highways, roads, and streets which keep pace with the transportation needs of our people."
 These needs were never more apparent than in Western North Carolina, he said. And he promised that, as governor, he would see that the mountain region got its fair share of highway building funds.
 Only two weeks ago, Moore appeared before a Senate committee in Washington to endorse the president's Appalachia bill which provides for $80 million to be spent on highways in Western North Carolina.
 Moore feels that with the federal money, plus the approval of his road bond issue, the state can go a long way toward meeting the highway needs of Western North Carolina, as well as those of the rest of the state.
 Both economy and charity should begin at home.
