LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

DIVIDED

Mars Hill EPD 3
April 10, 1966

Mr. Jim Story, Editor
The News-Record
Marshall, N. C.

Dear Jim:

Hope you are fine. I am sending a check for $2.58 to renew my paper.

Now here is what I want to tell you. I think there is too much hard talk going on in Madison County. If we could just see the good instead of the bad I think we could do better than we are doing. Now I don't think I have ever seen Zeno Ponder, but I think it's wrong to say hard things about anyone. I do know Sheriff Ponder and he's been a gentleman to me.

I am not renewing on account of these hard sayings that people are saying about each other. I am renewing because I love to get the news of the farm programs, deaths and Sunday School lessons and all the good reading material that is in The News-Record. I am going on my 80th year and I've never seen the people divided as bad as they are now. The Bible says every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand. (Matthew 12:25).

Marshall High Whips Rosman

Righthander Richard Spillers, who last week turned in a no-hit performance against Ben Lippen, Wednesday fashioned a neat two-hitter but still was charged with the loss as Marshall dumped Rosman, 4 to 3 at Rosman.

Marshall punched across a singleton in the top of the seventh, and then thwarted a Rosman rally in the same inning for its victory. Spillers fanned 14 and walked three.

Score by innings:
Marshall 300 000 1-4 2 1
Rosman 011 000 1-3 4 3
