Mrs. R. L. Roberts

MISS WOODY IS BRIDE OF R. L. ROBERTS

Miss Jeanette Lee Woody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Johnson of Asheville RFD 1, was married to Richard Lee Roberts on Sunday, May 2, 1965 at 2 p. m., in Bethel Baptist Church, Mars Hill.

Mr. Roberts is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Roberts of Alexander RFD 1.

The Rev. Lloyd V. Roberts, brother of the bridegroom, conducted the ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her maternal grandfather, Floyd L. Cummings of Asheville RFD 1. She wore a wedding gown of white Chantilly lace over taffeta with a veil attached to a coronet of pearls and carried white carnations on a Bible.

Mrs. Linda Roberts of Leicester, cousin of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore a yellow eyelet dress and carried blue iris.

Miss Brenda Woody, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She also wore yellow and carried iris.

Branson Roberts of Leicester was his brother's best man and usher were Howard Roberts, another brother, and Gary Fender, both of Alexander RFD 1.

A reception followed in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Roberts. Assisting were Mrs. Inez Roberts, Mrs. Inez Woody, Mrs. Mary Ellenburg, Mrs. Margaret Worley and Mrs. Ruth Worley.

The bride's mother wore a white and pink dress with white accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a floral dress.

Rebecca Cody's Name Left Off M.H. Girl Scouts

The name of Rebecca Cody, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Cody, of Mars Hill, was inadvertently omitted from the list of Girl Scouts who were promoted from Brownie to Junior Troop at the Scout Awards meeting here last week.

NO USE

Jack: "What is the difference between an elephant and a pound of sausages?"

John: "I don't know."

Jack: "Well, it wouldn't be much use sending you for a pound of sausages."

4-H Leaders Attend State Conference Near Reidsville

James and Dorothy Arrington, 4-H leaders for the Grapevine 4-H Club, represented the Madison

4-H ADULT LEADERS CONFERENCE — Nearly 100 leaders attended the 4-H Adult Leaders Conference at the Betsy-Jeff Penn 4-H Center near Reidsville, May 10-13. Three of the delegates were Mr. and Mrs. James Arrington, Marshall Rt. 6 (left) and Dr. Lillian Rich, Black Mountain.

County leaders at the State 4-H Leaders Conference May 10-13. They were among eighty-seven adult leaders from the various counties in North Carolina to attend the event held at Betsy-Jeff Penn 4-H Camp near Reidsville.

The program was designed to help all the leaders to have a better understanding of the needs of boys and girls in 4-H club work. The importance of each club having some type of planned recreation at each monthly meeting was emphasized to the group.

The Arringtons found that being a 4-H leader in Madison County is not much different from being a leader in the other counties of the State. All have one goal in common, to help boys and girls increase their knowledge, leadership abilities and develop their skills.

Barnard 4-H Club Met Recently

The Barnard 4-H Club held its monthly meeting May 4 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fowler with 14 people present. Devotions were given by Lucretia Freeman and 4-H Sunday was discussed. Then a demonstration was given on tobacco plants by Warren Roberts.

The next meeting will be held June 1 at this same home, when Steve Fowler will talk on vegetables.

MIDDLE-AGE

You know you're reaching middle age when your narrow waistline and your broad mind begin exchanging places.

4-H CAMP WEEK SET FOR COUNTY

Four-H club members in Madison County will attend Camp Schaub near Waynesville during the week of June 12-17.

Boys and girls belonging to a community 4-H club had an opportunity to see slides on the camp during the month of April.

There are many former 4-H members living in communities where clubs have not been organized. Any boy or girl in these communities who has been a 4-H member or would like to join a community club when organized may attend 4-H camp this summer. If you would like to attend, please contact the County Agent's office in the courthouse and your name will be added to the list of those to receive further information on the camp. Mail your letter of request to attend camp to Earle Wise or Barbara Rhodes, Marshall. We need your name, father's name and address by June 1 if you plan to attend.
