HEARD AND SEEN By "POP"

Sunday was a beautiful day and besides it was just the right time for Bill and me to "celebrate" our anniversary which was on Saturday when we couldn't celebrate — so — we decided to take a trip somewhere — actually didn't know where we were going but just started somewhere — as we neared Asheville I suggested we go toward Franklin and see Gold Mountain as well as visit some of our friends in Franklin — we had a rough start in a way when I had to stop at a service station near Asheville and get new brake shoes installed on my car — after that everything went okay — it was hot — plenty hot — but occasional showers helped — enjoyed our visit in Franklin with the Weimar Joneses — sorry the Sloans were not at home — and also sorry we didn't have time to look up J. P. Iray and family — it's a shame that I'm so poor — Mr. Jones, who is one of the most brilliant editorialists in the state, invited Bill and me to attend the editorial writers' seminar in London, England but had to decline due to a slight lack of funds — intended to come back via Doggett Mountain and see the new road but heavy thunderstorms changed our minds — did you hear about the father who offered his son a car and driver's license if he would cut off his Beagle bangs — the son refused so his father went out and got him a dog's license instead — got all confused the other day and thought I had my contacts mixed up and in the wrong eyes (contact wearers know what I mean) — anyway I went over to Fluharty's Monday and got straightened out — had 'em in the right eyes but they needed polishing, etc. — I'll bet Roy Reeves is having a wonderful time this week at Ocean Drive Beach, S. C., where he, Dot and the family are vacationing — I miss my old croquet partner — so hurry back, Roy — I can't handle such pros as Earl Edmonds, Andrew Bridges and Bill Hunter — I don't make it a practice of publishing letters (personal) but can't resist publishing a very nice letter from Sue Rice, lovely wife Lawrence Rice, I received Tuesday a. m. — I term it a "bitter-sweet" letter — the first part made my face turn red because I didn't ask Lawrence if his wife accompanied him here recently — I just published that Lawrence was visiting his parents — later found out Sue was along, too — but too late then for the local column — the "sweet" part of the letter is the last paragraph and the complimentary close which also made me blush — gosh, Sue, I didn't know you felt that way — maybe you shouldn't let Lawrence know — he has too many pistols and guns to suit me — anyway, I do appreciate the kind words and next time you come up here PLEASE let me know and you can bet I'll put it in the paper — the letter follows:

Greensboro, N. C.
July 17 1965

Hi "Pop:"
Received The News-Record and as usual was glad to get it. That was until I didn't find my name mentioned in it.

Now I will admit I'm not from Marshall but since I married the nicest boy from there, I think I rate at least to be mentioned.

I can understand since you only saw Lawrence and didn't see me. But that was my loss.

I not only was there, but I brought my brother, David Dodson, along.

I don't want you to think I'm mad, just a little hurt. Seriously, "Pop," I think you are the "greatest." Keep up the good work.

Thinking of you always, MRS. LAWRENCE "Sue" RICE — enjoyed talking with Woodrow Roberts who is visiting here from Detroit — "Woody" says he's been reading in the paper where Em is begging for a better Highway 25-70 from Marshall to the Tennessee line via Hot Springs — he agrees that we need an improvement — says if the state won't build one he might do so — go head, "Woody," it doesn't look like the state's very interested — also enjoyed a long talk with Tom Trumbull of Clearwater, Fla., who is visiting

Miss Jean Fowler

Mrs. Tisha G. Fowler, of Hot Springs, N. C., Route 2, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Jean Fowler, to Mr. Boyd Eugene Munday, son of Mrs. Oliver Bolick, of Granite Falls, N. C., Route 1. The wedding will be held in the Antioch Baptist Church, Taylorsville, N. C., Rt. 2, on Saturday, August 21, at four o'clock. The Rev. Robert Wine-coff, pastor of the church, will perform the ceremony.

Masons Will Hold Annual Picnic At Hot Springs

The French Broad Masonic Lodge No. 292 will hold its annual picnic Sunday, July 25 at 1:30 p. m., at the Hot Springs Hotel in Hot Springs.

All members of the lodge and their families and members of the Marshall Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star and their families are cordially invited. Please bring enough food for the whole day outing.

here — Tom says the fishing is great in Florida, and so is the "scenery" — he's the husband of the former Leta Jo Allman, you know — Tom's looking real good — sun-tan, etc. — likes Florida — but likes the mountains for some real sleep — sans air-conditioning — boy, oh, boy, — the Vota Vita picnic on the lawn of Kelley and Sibyl Davis Tuesday night was a nice affair — talk about eating — wow! — when I see all that delicious food just waiting to be picked up I go daffy — I try to sample everything the ladies have prepared and before I know it I'm full — but do I stop? — nope, not me — I go back for more — Ernest Teague and I filled our plates at least twice and then went back for a few "extras" — enjoyed sitting in the swing and talking with Margot, Gail, Janice and the others — we had quite a time, didn't we, gals? — and did you learn to pronounce Thames (River) correctly? — Gail and Janice must have had a wonderful time at 4-H Camp — and so did Frank, Morris, and the rest — just for record, Sibyl promised to make me a pineapple upside down cake — it's been a long, long time, pal — please don't disappoint me — oh these picnics — they're going to be the death of me yet — but I love 'em.

Charles M. Starnes Guest Speaker At Book Club Meeting

The Marshall Book Club held its annual picnic meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Ramsey last Monday. Husbands of the members were invited guests.

A social hour with bountiful and delicious picnic dinner was enjoyed the early evening. Following the dinner the group assembled for the program. Mrs. O. A. Gregory made a short summation of her reading and study during the past several months on the subject at hand. She then presented Charles M. Starnes, of Arden. Mr. Starnes, teacher of economics and social studies at T. C. Roberson High School, is also well-known for his civic accomplishments. He emphasized what was being done at the high school level to prepare young people to recognize and thus avoid the pitfalls of Communism.

Members present were Mr. and Mrs. Wade Huey, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tweed, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Gregory, Dr. and Mrs. J. L. McElroy, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ramsey, Mrs. W. T. McKinney and Mrs. Wiley Roberts.

Other guests in addition to the speaker were Mrs. Margaret Hood, Mr. David McElroy, of Marshall; and Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Roberts of Detroit.

LANKFORD, NEER VOWS EXCHANGED

The wedding of Miss Sonya Rea Lankford and Sgt. Gerald K. Neer took place Sunday, July 18, 1965 at 8 p. m., in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Jimmy Moore in Hot Springs.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Lankford of Hot Springs. She is a graduate of Spring Creek High School and was employed by Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Company.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Charles Neer of Winfield, Kans., and the late Mr. Neer, is serving with the U. S. Marine Corps at Camp Lejeune. They will live in Jacksonville.

The double ring ceremony was conducted by the Rev. Harry Seliter, pastor of First Methodist Church of Hot Springs.

Shrinks Hemorrhoids Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids and to relieve pain—without surgery. In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astonishing statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne®)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form called Preparation H®. At all drug counters.

Vows Are Spoken

Mrs John A. Corbett

Miss Frances Parsons Is Bride Of John A. Corbett

Vows Are Spoken In First Methodist Church In Clayton, Georgia

Miss Frances Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parsons of Clayton, Ga., and John A. Corbett, son of Mr. and Mrs. John O. Corbett of Marshall, were united in marriage on Sunday, July 11, 1965 at 3:30 o'clock at the First Methodist Church in Clayton. The Rev. W. Shelton Eubanks performed the double ring ceremony.

The altar of the church was banked in native rhododendron with ivory tapers and pink ribbon bows. The rhododendron and ribbon bows also marked the pews. A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. W. S. Bear-derick, organist; and Fred B. Derrick, Jr., soloist. Mr. Derrick sang "I Take Thee Dear", "Enter Me Not To Leave Thee" and "The Wedding Benediction." The traditional wedding marches were led.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a sheath silhouette gown of antique ivory bridal taffeta with a high oval neckline coming to a low V in the back and long fitted sleeves. The dress was adorned with banion lace and French crystals and pearls. A detachable A line train fell to full chapel length. Her veil of imported English bouffant illusion fell from an ivory circlet of lace and pearl petals. She carried a cascade bouquet of yellow roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Maurice Millsaps of Cham-blee, Ga., sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Margaret C. Hood of Marshall, sister of the bridegroom; Miss Dede Clark of Clearwater, Fla., Miss Meita Gailreath of Cartersville, Ga., and Miss Linda Wright of Charlotte. Junior bridesmaids were Miss Jane Green of Clayton and Miss Angie Dyer of Newmann, Ga. Angie Millsaps of Chamblee, niece of the bride was flower girl. Their dresses were of ice pink linfaat with lime velvet ribbon accenting the empire waistline. Their headpieces were of the same material with veil and they carried coronas of pink Shag daisies.

The junior bridesmaids' dresses were similar to the other attendants with green bow and streamers on their heads.

John Corbett was his son's best man. Ushers were Jack Godwin of Raleigh, Charles Leforte of Charlotte, Olin Jarrett, Jr., of Newport News, Va., and Maurice Millsaps of Chamblee, Ga.

The bride's mother wore a blue silk linen and lace dress with bone accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore yellow chiffon with matching accessories. Both wore orchid coronas.

Mrs. Corbett is a graduate of Brenau College, Gainesville, Ga., where she majored in elementary education.

Mr. Corbett graduated from the University of North Carolina where he received a B.S. degree in Business Administration. He is now assistant manager of the West Morehead Branch of First Union National Bank in Charlotte.

For a wedding trip to Nassau, the bride changed to a white silk linen suit with an orchid corsage. Upon their return Mr. and Mrs. Corbett will reside at 5311 Glenham Drive, Charlotte.

A reception was held on the lawn at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. An imported linen and lace cloth belonging to the bride's aunt covered the reception table from which punch and cakes were served.

Among the out-of-town attendants at the wedding were Mrs. A. Whitehurst, grandmother of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ramsey and daughter, Miss Ann Ramsey; Miss Veima Fox, Richard Freeman, Miss Stella Carver and Mrs. Craig Rudisill, Sr., all of Marshall; Mrs. J. O. Corbett, Sr., of Richmond, Va., grandmother of the bridegroom; and Mr. and Mrs. James W. Corbett and daughter, Ann, of Greenville, S. C.

Mr. and Mrs. John O. Corbett entertained the wedding party preceding the rehearsals on Saturday evening at the Clayton Motor Lodge. Place decorations were of traditional bride and groom motifs.

The bride and bridegroom eloped presented their attendants with gifts at the dinner. Miss Parsons presented her attendants engraved charms and Mr. Corbett gave his attendants diamond clipped tie tacks.

Following the rehearsal they were entertained on Lake Babson by Miss Sherri Bickerstaff and were guests over the week-end at the Bickerstaffs' cabin.
