SIGNS FOR US 25-70?

Someone has suggested posting large signs along US 25-70 from Marshall to Hot Springs with the following letters printed on the signs: "ATTENTION TOURISTS . . . DRIVE CAREFULLY . . . THIS HIGHWAY HASN'T BEEN IMPROVED IN THE PAST 35 YEARS . . . WATCH FOR HOLES . . . BROKEN SHOULDERS . . . BEWARE OF STEEP GRADES . . . SHARP CURVES."

This might not be a bad idea. Maybe the Marshall Chamber of Commerce will lend a helping hand.

Some people might think the signs would be a little too severe but when a person rides over this ancient but heavily-used highway from Marshall to Hot Springs and into Tennessee he wonders just WHY this important link of road has been so neglected for so long a time.

We have been promised time and again that this road MUST be improved. But for some unaccountable or unknown reason very little improvement has been noted in the past 30-35 years. It's no wonder that our people wonder.

Perhaps we harp too much about this highway and its condition but it so irritates us that we can't help it. We just hope that other readers (and drivers) will write to our commissioner, our highway engineer, our highway commission, our governor, and to other officials pointing out the great and vital need for a better highway into North Carolina from Tennessee via Hot Springs and Marshall.

We feel certain that our highway commissioner — J. G. Stikeleather, Jr. — will do all he can but it wouldn't hurt our citizens to show their concern by at least writing to our state officials.

IT TAKES MORE THAN TALK

The old adage that "everybody talks about the weather but no one does anything about it" could also apply to many other areas. Just about everybody's talking about the declining population in our county but so far as we can tell very few people are actually doing anything about it. We also hear so many people talk about the poor condition of Highway 25-70 but we wonder how many people have written to the State Highway Commission or to the governor pointing out the great need for a better highway? We hear so much criticism about this and that but we seldom hear any constructive ideas as to how to improve the situation.

Indeed, it is easy — and natural — to sit around and talk and criticize but it isn't too easy to find people willing to sacrifice time and effort to put this talk into action.

How many times have you heard someone remark, "Why don't THEY do something about this or that; why don't THEY improve this and that. And just as sure as someone tries to do something these same people, in many instances, will say, "Just look at him or her . . . THEY'RE trying to run everything."

We firmly believe that if our people would DO MORE and TALK LESS we could improve our county in numerous ways.

We're afraid too many people are just waiting for some industry to move into our county without exerting any effort to get an industry here. What are YOU doing to improve the present trend?

It's going to take more than TALK and wishful hoping . . . it's going to take cooperation and unity among our people plus some sweat and time.
