HEARD AND SEEN
By "POP"

Gosh, I'll bet Mary Emma Ponder is excited these days — she left Tuesday for New York and from there she will fly to Geneva, Switzerland to enroll in the University of Geneva — she's a fine girl — pretty, too — and I'll bet she'll make some of those Swiss boys take a second look — enjoyed having Dot Shupe's Journalism Class visit the office last Thursday — they saw the machinery running and were much interested in how the paper is made up and printed — every once and awhile I get real "lucky" — for instance, last Friday night I was visiting with the sports writers at the Citizen — listening to the AHS-Brevard game when my friend — and I mean friend — Bob Terrell asked me if I was going to Knoxville Saturday to see the Army-Tennessee game — I told him I'd like to but wasn't planning on it — didn't have tickets, etc. — he reached in his pocket and pulled out two ducats and said, "Take these if you want to go" — I asked how much — he said "they're yours" — I was so surprised and delighted I almost hugged him — I left the sports dept. and when I arrived at home I announced to "Bill" that "we're going to the Army-Tenn. game tomorrow" — she almost fainted — I told her what Bob Terrell had done and she, too, was most grateful — we went — we saw — and we had a wonderful time — thanks a million, Bob — you're one fine fellow, believe me — after the game we stopped at Weaver's Cafeteria on Magnolia and enjoyed a fine supper and then "took-off" for Hot Springs in time to see the Tryon-HS game — they asked me to P. A. the game, so I did — the game would have been nip-and-tuck except for a fast halfback of Tryon's whose name is Booker — the elusive Negro is one of the fastest backs I've seen this season — last Thursday night I had to rush over to Asheville on business and decided to go from Asheville to Cane River for the Marshall-C. R. game — the Rebels gave the Tornados a shellacking but at times, the Tornados looked real good — Roger Slagle adds a great deal to the team — especially now that Johnny Fisher is sidelined — was glad to see Kate Zuver again — she was real sweet and gave me a cup of coffee before the game — she was busy working the refreshments stand — also glad to see my friend Ed Wilson, too — he's principal at Cane River — and also talked to Coach Jim Neill — everything went off good except the game — thought Roy Reeves was going to come back with me — when I couldn't find him after the game I presumed he had returned to Marshall with Jack Cole, J. C. Wallin & Co., — they thought he was with me — both cars left Roy stranded at C. R., but he hitch-hiked a ride back on the bus with the players — hope this wasn't the reason he had to enter Memorial Mission Hospital Sunday — do hope he soon gets over his aches and pains and returns home — Marshall had its first home game Friday night with East Yancey — here's hoping the local Tornados will start blowing and blow the Panthers down —

Just A Woman's Observations

These cool nights are going to make us bring out the quilts and blankets soon, aren't they? I am so happy to see cool weather, but not especially glad to anticipate the snows, cold rain, and the mud and slush that goes with it. Hope you can come out to our ball game Friday night — we take on East Yancey and you just might be surprised at how it all comes out! Our cheerleaders have the cutest new outfits and they really do a grand job in cheering the team on. Congratulations to the new members of the squad—Linda Redmon, Donna Cassizzi, and Hilda Tipton — they are blending in well with the other girls. Our boys are doing as well as Mars Hill College, I guess — reminds me of taking a group of Walnut freshmen to a track meet in Asheville several years ago and when the day was over we had no points — but the fine new school, Enka — had no points either. When someone asked me how we came out, I'd reply, "Oh, we ranked along with Enka!" Was delightfully surprised by a visit of Cousin Gertrude and Sidney Ruskin Saturday. We talked a mile a minute, but still couldn't figure out just how much "kin" we were. They are from Georgia and visit us "mountaineer" relatives each summer. After they left, I dashed to the beauty parlor and while Ruth tried to beautify me, Beulah Fisher and "Miss Jenny Allman helped me figure out that we were grandchildren of Marion and Minerva Bryan — who were brother and sister. If that doesn't make sense — you just don't know these Bryans!

The Vota Vita Sunday School Class of the Marshall Baptist Church met Tuesday evening in the Fellowship Hall of the church with Mrs. Liston B. Ramsey as hostess.

Mrs. Ed L. Niles, president, presided over the business session.

Mrs. James Story had charge of the program and was assisted by Mrs. Jack Thomas in giving the devotions.

Bingo was played and prizes awarded to all those attending.

Marshall Garden Club Met With Mrs. O. A. Gregory

The Marshall Garden Club met last Thursday in the home of Mrs. O. A. Gregory. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, following which Mrs. Clyde M. Roberts, president, presided over the business session. She displayed a certificate of honor presented to the Marshall Garden Club by the Garden Club of North Carolina, Inc., and announced the district meeting of the Garden Club of N. C., would be held on Oct. 26 in Canton. Christmas Decorations for Marshall were discussed, and since the Merchants Association has asked that the Garden Club assist with this project, the hope was expressed that the Merchants Association and various civic organizations would find it possible to provide money and manpower in order to have an outstanding and distinctive decor.
