Merchant's Second Drawing To Be Held Here Saturday

Members of the Prize Committee for the Christmas Shopping Promotion, sponsored by the Marshall Merchants Association, this week announced the list of prizes which will be given away here next Saturday, December 11.

The second of four drawings will be held at 3:30 n'elock at the courthouse.

Practically all Marshall firms are participating in giving tickets with each $1.00 purchase or paid on account and thousands of tickets have already been given throughout this area.

In addition to trade certificates (each $5 deaomination) many merchants are also giving "extras" which are listed below. It was explained that these trade certificates can be used for money. They can be redeemed at any firm displaying the "We Redeem Certificates" signs. These firms are also listed on back of each trade certificate and cannot be redeemed at any store other than those listed. They are good for any merchandise of your choice or may be used to pay on account.

The tickets are blank this year (2"x3") pink cards). All you do is sign your name and address on back and deposit them in boxes in any participating store. The tickets will be drawn and the name of the person will be announced.

You DO NOT have to be present to win.

If, by chance, a ticket is drawn which has not been stamped by a firm it will be discarded.

Remember, the second drawing is SATURDAY at 3:30 o'clock in front of the courthouse. Below is the list of prizes to be given away Sat-

Governor Dan Moore Morday unmerted the General Assembly into extra session beginning Jan. to to deaft reapportsonment and reductricting legislation.

At the same time Lt. Governor Robert W. Scott and House Speaker II. Pat Taylor Jr. named special senate and house committees to start advanced studies on reapportionment of the two bod-

In the near falme, they said, a hant committee of house and sennte members will be named to study realignment of the state's II congressional districts.

The announcements came fullowing a conference by the three n Governor Moore's office.

The Governor, Scott and Tay lor, said the extra session should limit itself solely to action designed to comply with the Nov. 30 order of a three-judge federal portion both houses of the state legislature on a population basis, and to realign the congressional districts to achieve closer equali-

The three state leaders said that in confronting the problem of legislative reapportionment the general assembly should not seek at this time to increase the size of either the house or senate.
