

Mars Hill News

MRS. J. W. HUFF, Correspondent

A large number of friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Ball called at their home last Sunday to offer congratulations on the occasion of their 50th wedding anniversary. Three of their children who live at a distance were not able to be present, but all seven of them plan to come the first of July and be here for a few days together.

Several members of the Dudley Marshbanks family met last Sunday at the Paint Gap church for a Decoration service and a family reunion. All of the children could not come. Those present were: Mrs. French Holt, of Galax, Va.; Joe Marshbanks, of Charlotte; Mrs. Joe Chandler, of Weaverville; Willard Marshbanks, of Tampa, Fla.; and Mrs. J. G. Briggs, of Mars Hill; their mother, Mrs. Gregg Metcalf (the former Mrs. Marshbanks) was with them. There were also other relatives and friends present for the occasion.

Visitors here last week-end include: Mrs. A. H. Becker, of Fort Rucker, Ala., who spent three days here with her mother, Mrs. L. L. Vann; Mrs. Evelyn Vance, who visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Tilson and family, of Winston-Salem, who visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Tilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Phillips and family are spending this week in Jacksonville, Fla., and other points of interest.

Willard Robinson Dies In Atlanta; Funeral Tuesday

Willard Robinson, who had been in declining health for some time, died Sunday, June 4, 1967 in Atlanta, Ga. He was the son of the late Dr. W. F. Robinson and Ada Corpening Robinson. He was formerly of Mars Hill and was a graduate of Mars Hill College, but had made his home in Atlanta for a long time.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Rossie Robinson; a daughter, Mrs. Ada Witt; three grandchildren; 3 brothers, Mr. Douglas M. Robinson, of Mars Hill, Mr. J. Stanley Robinson, of Cincinnati, Ohio, and Dr. Robert L. Robinson, of Atlanta.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2:00 p. m., in Atlanta.

Revival Is In Progress At The Carmen Church

The regular second week-end revival at the Carmen Church of God will be Thursday through Saturday night, June 8-10. The Rev. John Hicks of Greenville, Tenn., will be the guest speaker. There will be a Father's Day service and homecoming at this church June 18. This will include the regular Sunday morning services with Sunday School beginning at 9:30, and a guest speaker in the church service. Lunch will be served at noon; in the afternoon, singing and short talks by a number of visiting ministers will be heard. This service is to honor the oldest fathers and renew old times and old friends. We hope to have some older ministers such as Rev. John R. Harris, Rev. Leonard Norris, and others present for this occasion. "Come and bring a dish of food and enjoy the day. Everyone is invited," stated the Rev. Howard Parton, pastor.

Married June 1

MRS. CLYDE EUGENE CARTER before her marriage Thursday, June 1, 1967 in Greenville, S. C., was Miss Wanda Lee Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Austin of 47 Walnut Lane, Woodfin. The bridegroom, a sign painter, is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Carter of Mars Hill. The bride works at Ball Brothers.
