HEARD AND SEEN By "POP"

And the rains came Sunday and Sunday night and the river started acting up — and up — and up — fortunately it stopped rising before any damage was done but for awhile it looked real dangerous — Rosman wasn't so fortunate because it was flooded — even so, many of the basements around town had plenty of water in them — and the office here resembled a swimming pool — not quite that bad, though — congratulations to the Boy and Girl Scouts for preparing and planting the flowers at the parking lot on Main Street — little improvements like this add greatly to the appearance to the town — may be more improvements are forthcoming — am glad that Kahty Briggs is mingling about town — working at the Bd. of Ed. office — she's one of my favorites — was glad to see Jack Thomas for a few minutes while he was here Monday — he, Betty, David and Phillip left Monday p. m. for Fort Lee, Va., where the Chaplain is now stationed — gosh, I heard Tuesday that a certain "official" in the county had TWO secretaries — made possible through one of these "poverty programs" — wish the program would supply me with even ONE secretary — understand they can't "dish 'em out" to private businesses, tho' — shucks — and how I could use a secretary who could type and spell a little — not much salary but heaps of learning — would appreciate it if the Little League or Babe Ruth teams would report their games to the paper — I'd be glad to publish them — it's actually hard to write anything amusing what with the Middle East situation so alarming — also Vietnam — seems sometimes that the world is less civilized now than it was a hundred years ago — after listening over Television to the debates in the UN, I wonder if it shouldn't be more correct to say, Un-United Nations rather than United Nations — most everyone is look-

David Plemmons To Represent County At Camp

David Plemmons has been selected as the 4-H Club representative from Madison County to attend the annual 4-H Forestry Camp at Camp Millstone near Rockingham. He is the son of Homer Plemmons of Hot Springs.

One hundred boys — each a 4-H Club forestry leader in his county — will converge on Camp Millstone in Richmond County for the annual 4-H Forestry Camp during the week of June 12. The 4-H Forestry Camp is held annually at Camp Millstone in Richmond County as a part of this overall 4-H Forestry Program. To date, over 800 4-H Club boys, representing each of the one hundred counties in North Carolina and nearly one hundred county agricultural agents, have attended the camp. The camp has received recognition as one of the best planned and conducted activities of this type in the country.
