MAN, THAT'S TROUBLE

A businessman was extremely concerned over declining income, and an acquaintance told him that he looked worried.

"You're exactly right," the man admitted. "I'm booked solid on worries. Why, I've got so many worries on my mind that if anything occurs today, it'll be ten days before I can get around to worrying about it!"

Youth Revival In Upper Laurel To Start Tuesday

The Rev. Don Johnson of Memphis, Tenn., often dubbed the Boy Billy Graham for his work among youth, will conduct a Youth Revival in the Upper Laurel Valley July 31 - August 4.

The series of services is sponsored by the Christian Youth and Methodist young people in the valley. The evangelist will be heard at the Laurel Methodist Church nightly at 7:30 o'clock.

Special music is being arranged for the services.

Committees of young people and pastors of the Upper Laurel Baptist and Laurel Methodist Churches are assisting in arrangements for the series of services.

Mr. Johnson conducted a revival at the Laurel Methodist Church a year ago, and the services drew large crowds from a wide area, including at least a half-dozen churches in the vicinity.

DOUBLE THE DOSE

Half-way measures are adequate only if you double the dose prescribed.
