

EXTENSION NEWS

A period of excessive rainfall could really put burley farmers in a pinch. During this period of dry weather, tobacco roots have been growing faster than the plants. Many farmers have added extra nitrogen which, in most cases, was not needed. The excellent root system, plus the fertilizer in the bed, are just waiting for the necessary moisture.

Farmers would be wise to have their fields ready to transplant. These plants can become too large almost overnight should they receive enough rainfall. Don't be caught napping.

The Madison County 4-H Talent Show will be held Friday night, May 17, at 7:30 o'clock in the Walnut School. 4-H'ers from the various clubs will perform. Winners will be selected to represent the county at District Activity Day June 25.

The public is invited to attend. A small admission will be charged.

Tomato transplanting is almost complete in the lower end of Madison County. A lot of plants were injured by frost and cold.

Schedule Of Homemakers Clubs In County

Monday, May 20 — Mars Hill Young Homemakers Club will meet with Mrs. Betty Deans at 7:30 p. m.

Tuesday, May 21 — Little Pine EH Club will meet with Mrs. Hattie McElroy at 2 p. m.

Tuesday and Wednesday, May 21 and 22 — District Meeting of EH Clubs at Lake Junaluska, Waynesville.

Friday, May 24 — Leader training for EH Club program leaders for June meetings at 1:30 p. m., in the Home Economics Agents' office.

winds. Many farmers found it necessary to reset some of the earlier set plants. The Spring Creek and Meadow Fork Communities have their transplanting well under way and will be over 85% complete by the end of this week. Other areas of the county are in various stages of transplanting tomatoes.

Conditions for plant growth and transplanting have been much better than the 1967 season and unless we have severe conditions in the near future fruit set on the early hands should be much better than last year.

As it appears now, there will be from five to ten per cent reduction in total transplanted acres in Madison County from last year.

On Leave

In Memory of Our Mother, LILLIE CANDLER who died one year ago— May 17, 1967

Farewell, dear Mother, thy work is o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more.
A loving mother, kind and true,
No one on earth will find like you.
Her smiling way and pleasant face
Are a pleasure to recall;
She had a kindly word for each,
And died beloved by all.
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days.
Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
She suffered patiently and long;
Her hope was bright, her faith was strong.
The peace of Jesus filled her breast,
And in His arms she sank to rest.

"Sadie Hawkins Day" To Be Held At Mars Hill Sat.

Mars Hill School is going to be the scene of some real fun and excitement Saturday as "Sadie Hawkins Day" is enjoyed. The event, similar to the spring festivals held in the past, will last all afternoon and evening. Featured that day will be sack races, egg tosses, bingo games, pony rides, pie eating contests, games of chance, games of skill, cake walks, competitive sports and relays.

A chicken supper will be served in the cafeteria from five to seven. A dance will be held from eight to ten in the gym. Come to Mars Hill Saturday and have the fun of your life. The event is jointly sponsored by the 1968 "Wildcat" staff and the PTSA.

Singing

There will be a singing at the Walnut Creek Baptist Church this Saturday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

The public is invited.

Marshall And Rosman Split

Rosman and Marshall split a doubleheader here Thursday.

Rosman clipped Marshall, 2-1, in the first encounter despite losing pitcher Roger Haynie's one-hitter. Winning hurler Mike Biggs tossed a two-hitter for the winners.

In the second contest, Marshall came to life and drilled Rosman, 9-1 behind John Fisher's cool one-hitter.
