GOOD NEWS

Highway Commissioner James G. Stikeleather, Jr., has announced that $750,000 has been allocated for the improvement of NC 213 from Marshall to Mars Hill. This is good news for our county. Of course, $750,000 isn't an enormous sum for improving this 10-mile strip but it certainly is better than nothing.

For years this road has been sorely in need of improvement and when the bridges were widened it was an indication that something was in the making. Perhaps this is the beginning.

Let's hope that our highway officials will find more money to further improve this heavily used highway. It should be one of the finest highways in the county. Let's make it just that.

WHAT OUR WORLD NEEDS

To accept the doctrine of universal criticism leaves us with almost nothing that is sacred—almost nothing that is absolute—and nothing that is eternal. No real has our acceptance of the doctrine of criticism become that even the word "indoctrination" has been turned into an evil word that must be shunned like "discipline," "disciple," or "patriotism."

These three doctrines — universal conformity, universal change, and universal criticism — have left our nation without moorings or anchors. We are being tossed about in the sea of doubt and uncertainty that is about to sink the ship of God before our very eyes.

- The world today is looking for:
- Men who are not for sale;
 - Men who are honest, sound from center to circumference, true to the heart's core;
 - Men with consciences as steady as the needle to the pole;
 - Men who will stand for the right if the heavens totter and the earth reels;
 - Men who can tell the truth and look the world right in the eye;
 - Men who neither brag nor run;
 - Men who neither flag nor flinch;
 - Men who can have courage without shouting it;
 - Men in whom the courage of everlasting life runs still, deep and strong;
 - Men who know their message and tell it;
 - Men who know their place and fill it;
 - Men who know their business and attend to it;
 - Men who will not lie, shirk or dodge;
 - Men who are not too lazy to work, nor too proud to be poor;

- Men who are willing to eat what they have earned and wear what they have paid for;
- Men who are not ashamed to say "No" with emphasis and who are not ashamed to say "I can't afford it."

God is looking for men. He wants those who can unite together around a common faith—who can join hands in a common task—and who have come to the kingdom for such a time as this. God give us men.

Girl Scout Fathers To Help Prepare Camp Near Brevard

Saturday and Sunday, October 26-27, 46 Full Service Week-end at Camp Pigeon near Brevard. Fathers and their Girl Scout daughters will spend the week-end preparing the 171 acre camp for the winter. Directors will be painting. Lawyers will be digging ditches. A few will be goofing off. The big problem this year is how to paint a 100-foot-tall flag pole.

Mrs. Oscar Fish is on the sick list and was taken to Tidwell Hospital last week for treatment.

LETTERS TO EDITOR FOR CONSOLIDATION

Oct. 21, 1968

Dear Pop:
The Madison County schools should be consolidated even if it is necessary to cross county lines to achieve this worthwhile objective. The many duplications in administrative units should be eliminated. A comprehensive high school can offer a broad curriculum for both the college bound and those who will begin earning a living when they leave high school. Imaginative leadership is necessary in order to promote the necessary local action to eliminate the small high schools through district reorganization or consolidation. Geography or terrain may have been legitimate justification for a small high school in years gone by but all too often it has been merely an excuse. Human nature offers the real explanation.

Let everyone of good will in Madison work for a high school of sufficient size so as to make the future of our youth a brighter and happier one.

Sincerely,

JOE L. MORGAN

J. C. Griffin, Native Of County, Passes Sunday

J. C. Griffin, 30, of 204 Roberts St., Weaverville, was found dead Sunday night, October 20, 1968, outside an unfinished house on Indian Lane Road, Rt. 1, Weaverville.

Deputy Buncombe County Medical Examiner Dr. Lawrence Sprinkle said that Griffin apparently died Saturday afternoon after falling eight feet from a scaffold and landing on his head.

Griffin apparently suffered a broken neck.

A native of Madison County, he had lived in Buncombe County for 11 years and was an employee of Burlington Industries.

Youths To Join 4-H TV Science Club In January

Madison County boys and girls will have an opportunity to learn more about science via special television programs beginning Saturday, January 26.

A series of 10 programs will be presented weekly over television station WLOS, Channel 13, according to Madge Guffey, Assistant Home Economics Agent.

The tentative date for the programs will be each Saturday from 7:30 to 8:00 a. m. beginning January 26. An effort is being made to show the programs later in the morning. Watch for a confirmation of this time.

The series, to be called the 4-H TV Science Club, will teach boys and girls how to preserve animals and how to make a fire extinguisher, sundial, plastic greenhouse and an air car, plus many other exciting experiments.

Each show features a special guest who is an expert in the projects under discussion.

Boys and girls enrolling for the series of 30-minute programs will be able to buy special manuals. The manual offers suggested activities and easy-to-do projects designed to help boys and girls understand some of the basic principles in science.

Boys and girls interested in joining the 4-H TV Science Club should contact their school teacher, 4-H adult leaders or the county extension agent in Marshall.

The 4-H Science Clubs in North Carolina are presented by the Agricultural Extension Service at N. C. State University and the educational television station.

Piano-Violin Recital Set In Mars Hill Friday Night

Mars Hill College faculty is sponsoring a piano and violin recital Friday at 8 p. m., in Moore Auditorium, open to the public.

May Jo Ford, instructor in piano and violin at the college, and Iera Borden, instructor in piano at Converse College in Spartanburg, S. C., will present the program which will include Beethoven's Sonata No. 105, Opus, 96; Prokofiev's Five Pieces for Violin and Piano and Ravel's Tzigane.

Mrs. Ford and Mrs. Gorden are both candidates for master of music degrees from Converse School of Music. They will give future performances Nov. 1 at Converse (Mrs. Ford's graduate recital); in January at Montreat-Anderson College and in February in Morganton.

In Memory Of GEORGE M. BAILEY

The country was in grief on that sorrowful day,
When George Bailey passed away,
George was a friendly man, we say;
He wanted all people to be friendly and gay.

He wasn't afraid to give up his life
For his many years of strife.
Four sisters and seven brothers
Loved him, too;
It seems he died for rights he never knew.

Mom and Dad were hurt with every touch,
For that was their child, and they loved him very much.
A mantle of his love we know,
So beautiful and warm,
How he's brought comfort to our hearts;

Though we're miles apart,
He was one of many who were ready
To lead in battle or in strife;
But very few were willing to do
The little things he did in life.
His great deeds may receive rewards below,
And earth's applause is given;
But his little things are seen of God.

From His watchtower up in Heaven!
George was not for wrong, but
Now it's too late — he's dead and gone.
There were some who felt he was
for violence,
But from now on he'll sleep in silence.

He prayed for the violence to decrease,
And wanted us all to live in peace.
He did all he possibly could.
He'll sleep in peace which we think he should.
