HEARD AND SEEN By "POP"

Yup, it rained cats and dogs last Friday and for a while it looked foolish to even think about going through with the Homecoming parade with those beautiful floats, etc. — but about 1:30 the rains let up in time for the parade to be a success — a little damp but not too bad — congratulations to the Juniors and Seniors on winning top honors — also congratulations to the other students and their fine floats — and to the N. B. band for coming down to help — in fact, congratulations are in order for everyone who made the parade so attractive — I just wonder how many paper napkins were used on all the floats — soon after the parade the rains again started and by game time the grid was a quagmire — the crowning of the Queens was held at the 50-yard line but without benefit of convertibles to ride in — the girls were real pretty but I hated to see those lovely evening dresses soaked by rain — congratulations to Judy Buckner and Joyce Goforth in winning the coveted top honors — for a few moments, at least, Marshall fans had something to yell about — the Tornadoes led 12-6 at halftime — there haven't been too many times this season that our boys have been ahead — the season's final game is slated for tonight (Thursday) at Rosman — it's been a disappointing season not only for the MHS fans, but also for the players and coaches — at times our boys looked real good, but playing larger consolidated schools, for the most part, we had little chance for a winning season — if and when consolidation is achieved things will be far different — Harry Silver, Jerry Plennons, Bob Knox (formerly here but now at Marion) and I might be considered by many as plain fools for going all the way to Raleigh last Saturday in the pouring rain to see the Virginia-N.C.S.U. game but just remember — there were 22,500 more fools at the same game — yes, it did rain — we even bought rain suits en route to Raleigh — but we had a good time — State won, 19-0 — and that made us all happy — too, we had a fine time going and coming — even in the rain — several football fans from here enjoyed the Tenn.-Ala. game at Knoxville but no wonder — they had perfect weather plus a thrilling game — Ed, Nell, Ernest, Louise and the others who went said it was one of the finest games they've ever seen — Tenn., 10; Alabama 9 — glad Thelma Freeman and her sister had such a good time last week around Detroit and Niagara Falls — I'll bet Thelma got a big kick out of traveling by jet plane —

What a hectic week last week was! Homecoming, the Parade, serving food in the home economics department Friday night and then our Women's Club dinner with Pat Taylor Saturday night! But it was all fun and a good time was had by all, I hope, at all functions.

The seniors worked like beavers on their float and I thought ours was the best, but the judges thought otherwise, so we go by what the decision is and show good sportsmanship in any endeavor. Congratulations to the juniors and their sponsors, Mrs. Sprinkle, Coaches Reeves and Cole. And a big thanks to Miss Plennons and those who helped on the senior float; namely, Alan Payne, Daris Anderson, Connie Slagle, Sandra Hunter, Karen Robinson, James Haynie, and too many others to name.

I'm sure the game was most exciting and the girls were lovely in the court with the two queens, Joyce Goforth, Homecoming queen, and Judy Buckner, Football queen. And the other members of the court were Ruth Ann Cantrell, Brenda Bryan and Dolores Bradley. We were so busy getting hot dogs, hamburgers, etc., ready to eat that some of us didn't see any of the game nor the crowning ceremony. I enjoyed the parade and thought the North Buncombe band was very good and the crowd did also.

We really had a big time Saturday night at the Democratic Women's Club dinner. You should have seen Mrs. Whitson bringing her "Lennon Sisters" in by spreading bubbles from a jar as she came to the podium. She was so cute as were Latrelle, Bill, Carol and Marie. And the men, bless their hearts, were just as cute giving their all as the "Mills Brothers!" Not one of them could carry a tune in a bucket and you should have heard Tom ask for greater volume on the guitar so as to drown them out! With him were Zeno, Bill, and Jackie with my George (imagine) directing them!

We heard some excellent talks from Pat Taylor, Lamar Gudgeer and Congressman Roy A. Taylor. We had over 300 there and everyone seemed to enjoy the evening to the fullest extent. I don't believe there has ever been such a large crowd in the cafeteria at one time before! In the receiving line I was trying to check each person's name tags before introducing him to Lamar Gudgeer and one time I couldn't make out the name very well and looked at the person and it was Mrs. Carroll Tweed! Had I looked at the person first, I wouldn't have needed to bother to look at her tag! But when you try to introduce 300 people to a guest speaker it takes a bit of quick thinking and remembering.

OBSERVED — Of course in recognizing all the special guests I forgot to mention Eldridge and Ann Leake who came from Raleigh, David and Willa Ann Wyatt from Gaston County, Councilman Clarence E. Morgan of Asheville and his grandson, Mike, and B. B. Cantrell of Asheville also, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Boone of Mars Hill — Several people came in after having been to see the Clemson game — Charlotte's Appalachian team won again, as did our Western Carolinas eleven at Homecoming there — Mr. Taylor said he offered to let Charlotte fly here with him from Boone Saturday, but she couldn't make it — but she's coming home this Friday for the first time — We are really thrilled to have her come back for the week-end — Hope my Republican friends will forgive all my talk of my dinner, but they must remember I took my history classes over to the Court House to see John Stickley and Jan Gardner last year which made them a crowd — I'll be glad when all this is over, won't you? May the best man win!

Reece Family Receives Awards Posthumously

Mr. and Mrs. Burnette Reece of the Walnut Creek section have been presented the Bronze Star and other medals and citations presented posthumously to their son, Sgt. Walter J. Reece who was killed in Vietnam earlier this year.

Sgt. Reece attended Marshall High School. He enlisted in the Marine Corps in December, 1965 and had been stationed in Vietnam since the summer of 1967.

Following is the Citation and other awards presented:

The President of the United States takes pride in presenting the BRONZE STAR MEDAL posthumously to SERGEANT WALTER J. REECE United States Marine Corps for service as set forth in the following CITATION:

"For heroic achievement in connection with operations against the enemy in the Republic of Vietnam while serving as a Platoon Sergeant with Co. F, 2nd Battalion, 1st Marines, 1st Marine Division, On 19 May 1968 Company F was conducting a search and destroy operation near the Khe Sanh Combat Base when the unit suddenly came under intense mortar, small arms and artillery fire from a large North Vietnamese Army force. Alertly observing two Marines fall wounded in an area dangerously exposed to the enemy fire, Sergeant REECE fearlessly ran across the fire-swept terrain toward his fallen comrades. As he approached the position of the wounded men, he observed a hostile emplacement and immediately threw a hand grenade into the position, destroying it. Unhesitatingly continuing toward the injured men, he came under fire from another enemy position and was mortally wounded. His heroic and timely actions were an inspiration to all who observed him. Sergeant REECE's courage, sincere concern for the welfare of his fellow Marines and selfless devotion to duty were in keeping with the highest traditions of the Marine Corps and of the United States Naval Service. He gallantly gave his life in the service of his country."

The Combat "V" is authorized.

FOR THE PRESIDENT H. W. BUSE, JR.

Lieutenant General, U. S. Marine Corps

Commanding General, Fleet Marine Force, Pacific

The following awards were also awarded posthumously: Purple Heart, National Defense Service Medal with one Campaign Star, Vietnam Campaign Medal, Certificate of Honorable Service.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation for the kindness shown during the illness and death of our mother, Mrs. Sallie Ledford; also for the beautiful floral tributes.

PTA, and a representative from the State Department of Public Instruction and from Western Carolina University.

Counties in District Two are Madison, Buncombe, Haywood, Henderson, Polk, Rutherford, and Transylvania.

This county was represented by Mrs. Steve Wallin, President of the Marshall PTA; Coles Plennons, President of the Walnut PTA; and Mrs. O. A. Gregory and Mrs. Wiley DeVall, members of Marshall PTA.

Marshall Book Club Met Monday, Oct. 21

Mrs. J. L. McElroy and Mrs. Wiley M. Roberts were co-hostesses to the Marshall Book Club Monday evening, Oct. 21, in the McElroy home. Officers for the new term were elected and Mrs. Bewley Tweed gave the book review. New officers are: president, Mrs. John O. Corbett; vice president, Mrs. Clyde M. Roberts; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Paul H. Dinwiddie.

Mrs. Tweed read selections from a book of poems entitled "For All the Lost and Lonely" by Edward Dixon Garner, a resident of Asheville, and called attention to two new additions to the book shelf at the County Library, "One Hundred Great American Novels." The compilation included novels from pre-Revolutionary times to the beatnik generation and is done by a staff of distinguished scholars. New at the library is a book by Edgar Cayce for all who enjoy the field of prophecy. Jean Dixon said of Edward Cayce that "he is the expert." The book review was a timely and entertaining review of "The Right People," by Stephen Birmingham. This is a study of American society in general — about the social establishment in

Marshall Club Wins District Award

The yearbook of the Marshall Garden Club, designed by Mrs. Delmar Payne, vice president of the local club, won first place in the handmade division for clubs with less than twenty-five members in District I, Garden Clubs of North Carolina. The award was made at the annual meeting of District I on Tuesday, Oct. 15, at Lambuth Inn, Lake Junaluska. Because of this honor, a beautiful silver tray with the Marshall club's name engraved, will stay in the club's possession for one year.

A point system for grading yearbooks is used, and the format must meet certain requirements, but originality in design is encouraged. Mrs. Payne's design was a white cover with a life-size cardinal perched on a dogwood limb. The cardinal was finished in red oil paint and other drawings were in pen and crayon. The program theme for the coming year is "Say It With Music."

America.

The November meeting will be held in Asheville on November 18.
