Insurance Agent Breaks Windshield With Foul Ball

Walter Harrell, Marshall businessman, decided Tuesday afternoon that he wanted to see the football game between the Bull Creek team and the Marshall Baptist Church team which was being played on the Island.

He drove to the playing field but decided to park about 200 feet from home plate for fear of a foul ball striking his car.

So what happens? You guessed it!

Roy Reeves, of the MBC team, strolled to the plate and promptly fouled off a pitch which traveled the 200 feet, hitting and breaking the windshield of Walter's car.

"Oh, well," Walter laughingly commented, "I've got my insurance with Nationwide and Roy is the agent. No better person could have been responsible for the broken windshield than the agent."

"I'll be dadburned," Roy stated, "but guess I'll have to see that Nationwide pays for it."

Vietnam Pullout

By the end of August, all of the 25,000 - including another brigade plus headquarters elements of the 9th Division, and 7,500 U. S. Marines, will have left Vietnam. Still more withdrawals are expected to be announced soon.

After a departure ceremony at Saigon's Tan Son Nhut air base, the 814 fly to McChord Air Force base near Seattle, Wash.

On hand to greet them at McChord will be Gen. William C. Westmoreland, Army chief of staff and former U. S. commander in Vietnam.

Secretary of the Army Stanley R. Resor will be the senior Pentagon official at a welcoming parade for the outfit in Seattle Thursday.

There was speculation that the enemy might try to arrange a sendoff of their own for the American contingents withdrawing over the next six weeks.

Dong Tam, headquarters of the 9th Division and its 2nd Brigade, the Mobile Riverine force, is a favorite target of enemy rocket and mortar crews in the Mekong Delta region.

Extra security precautions were in effect at the base and around Tan Son Nhut. Many more helicopters than usual were to be airborne around Saigon as a part of a surveillance effort.

The enemy sapper attack early Monday was aimed at a U. S. Military Assistance Command at Luong Son.

Tests were put out in the Big Pine Community on the farms of Don Wilds, Herbert Wilds, and in the Middle Fork Community on the farm of Gerald Young. In the Big Pine Community the chemical definitely controlled these grasses, but it did not control broadleaf weeds; in the Middle Fork Community, it was used in conjunction with Atrazine at the rate of three pounds of Sutan plus one pound of Atrazine per acre. This was given good control of the annual grasses plus the broadleaf plants.

Sutan is applied preplant and disked in immediately. On the farm of Mr. Herbert Wilds, one nozzle of his spray rig stopped up and went unnoticed for one round. This accidentally left us a real good check, and this is the only strip in the field where these annual grasses are a problem. On the basis of the tests this year, this looks like a good chemical for the control of nutgrass, and barnyard grass.

Rep. L. B. Ramsey Is Recognized For WNCAC Assistance

Representative Liston B. Ramsey, of Marshall, was given special recognition Monday as officials and the public toured the facilities of the youth building nearing completion at the Western N. C. Agricultural Center near the Asheville Airport.

Funds for the youth facility were available when the 1967 N. C. General Assembly appropriated $25,000 for the building and for further improvements to the Agricultural Center, which was dedicated that year. The bill was sponsored by Ramsey and had been requested by the Dairy and Beef Cattle Commissions of the Agricultural Development Council, which had promoted construction of the Agricultural Center.

Representative Ramsey was present and received special recognition at the luncheon.

These facilities are owned and operated by the N. C. Department of Agriculture and are located on a 25-acre site on Interstate 26 adjacent to the Asheville Airport. This land was donated to the state by the City of Asheville.

Sutan Herbicide Recommended To Control Grasses

Since the use of Atrazine as a herbicide on corn has become widespread, each year the problem with nutgrass, barnyard grass, and fall panicum has become worse. This season we tried a new herbicide called Sutan for the control of these grasses.

Tests were put out in the Big Pine Community on the farms of Don Wilds, Herbert Wilds, and in the Middle Fork Community on the farm of Gerald Young. In the Big Pine Community the chemical definitely controlled these grasses, but it did not control broadleaf weeds; in the Middle Fork Community, it was used in conjunction with Atrazine at the rate of three pounds of Sutan plus one pound of Atrazine per acre. This was given good control of the annual grasses plus the broadleaf plants.

Sutan is applied preplant and disked in immediately. On the farm of Mr. Herbert Wilds, one nozzle of his spray rig stopped up and went unnoticed for one round. This accidentally left us a real good check, and this is the only strip in the field where these annual grasses are a problem. On the basis of the tests this year, this looks like a good chemical for the control of nutgrass, and barnyard grass.

FORCES ARE CUT BY 20,000 FOR OVERSEAS DUTY

Washington - President Nixon ordered a cutback of 20,000 U.S. troops and civilian employees at foreign bases Wednesday as a means of saving money and "reducing the American presence overseas."

The pullback affects 14,900 military people - but none are in such actual or potential trouble spots as Vietnam, Korea, West Germany and other countries protected by the NATO alliance.

The White House specifically exempted those areas and said further there will be no cuts in military units in Southeast Asia directly involved in the Vietnam war effort.

Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said any decision on Vietnam reductions beyond the previously announced 25,000-man withdrawal would come under an entirely separate program. Next decision time is August.

This presumably means the cuts might be made in such countries as Japan, which has 40,000 American troops, Spain with 10,000 or Turkey which had 10,000. No specific list was given, however.

There was no indication as to why the foreign streamlining was undertaken at this time, but some key members of Congress have been increasingly critical about the United States continuing to keep large forces overseas.

TWO SHOTS
The G.I. on the rifle range was such a lousy shot that when his card came back from the firing pits, there wasn't a mark on it.

"Well?" snarled the sergeant. "What've you got to say for yourself?"

"I feel like shooting myself," mumbled the despondent G.I.

"Better plan on using two bullets," said the sergeant.
