HEARD AND SEEN By "POP"

Every year Bill and I play "hooky" from our church and attend Homecoming at the Walnut Methodist Church — The Rev. Joseph M. Reeves, of Brevard, and former pastor of the Walnut church, delivered the sermon — as always, it was a most meaningful message — not only was the morning worship service impressive, but the dinner which was spread out on a long table on the church yard was delicious — although we hadn't planned to stay for dinner, so many of those fine folks insisted that it wasn't hard for us to change our minds — Gina Plemmons, pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Plemmons, is really growing and is cute as she can be — Dr. and Mrs. J. D. Reeves's infant son was a feature attraction as he looked so cute in his carriage — enjoyed Dorothy's and Ernestine's duet — in fact, we were glad we attended the service and had the pleasure of sharing the fellowship with the others — I was also invited to the Dorland Bell Homecoming at Hot Springs Sunday but couldn't be at both affairs — hated to miss the good meal at Hot Springs but had plenty at Walnut — thanks for the invitation, though — Coley, our Linotype operator, is on vacation this week — hope he and Pearl have a good time — Floyd's pinch-hitting on the Lino this week and is doing a good job — congratulations to the Al Peveralls — I think Traci Lyn is a cute name — heard that Joy is overjoyed with her little sister, born Sunday evening at St. Joseph's — congratulations are also in order for Otto McDevitt, who faithfully manages and coaches the Little League teams of Marshall — I'm sure the boys and their parents appreciate the fine work Otto has been doing —
