"FOOD FOR THOUGHT" By Sugar Campbell

Just when you're beginning to think well of people, you run across somebody who puts sugar on sliced tomatoes.

The more intelligent people are, the more originality they see in the other man.

A man must have a certain amount of intelligent ignorance to get anywhere.

It is when a man begins to live in the past, the good old days that the boat begins to drift downstream...

CHANGES FOR '70

The 1970-71 church year will usher in a new decade. Churches will face a challenging task in a constantly changing world.

One of the greatest aids to be made available is the new grouping-grading system. Equally important is the church literature which will become available October, 1970.

Baptists in this area will have their first opportunity to observe these new changes at a special clinic provided by the Frenel Broad Baptist Association to be held at the Madison Seminary Baptist Church February, 23, 24 & 25 at 7:00 o'clock each evening.

This clinic, shaping the '70s, is a preparation clinic to get a comprehensive preview of church life anticipated in the 70s to renew the spirit, structure, to face the challenge of the decade ahead.

All pastors, Sunday School superintendents, elected church officers, teachers, Training Union Woman's Missionary Union, Brotherhood, music, and all other interested church workers should take advantage of this opportunity.

JUST A WOMAN'S OBSERVATIONS By DOROTHY B. SHUPE

Guess all of us will be heading for the Marshall gym for the next two week-ends to see just who will be named the Champions for 1970. Of course, I'm hoping that our boys and girls will win and I suppose you will be for your choice if you don't live in our territory.

Saw Charles Wilde this week as he began his new job at Service Motor Sales Company. He is as handsome as ever and tells me he has a little daughter, five years old.

I'm going to stick my neck out and predict that the Marshall girls and boys will win the tournament - if I'm wrong, it won't be the first time - the flu bug is still holding forth around here - either you've had it, or you have it, or you're afraid you're going to get it - sorry to hear that Otto McDevitt had such a tough time in Aston Park Hospital - hope he soon feels better - I know all the young boys around here hope he'll be able to again manage them in Little League and Babe Ruth baseball this summer - I enjoyed speaking to the Helping Hands 4-H Club Saturday afternoon on "Newspapering" - a very interesting group and they were very attentive - "Shep," the beautiful Collie belonging to the Bobby Chandlers, our neighbors, had a litter of pups a few nights ago in my garage - cute little black and white pups - "Shep" usually runs from her home to my home every time I drive up the hill and is a most faithful "kreeter" - she's one of the finest dogs I've ever known

The seniors have elected their superlatives for the year and I can find the sheet that tells who they are, I'll pass the information on to you. For best all around Jackie Ball and Marie Moore; most popular, Pat and Ricky McDevitt; best looking, Judy Buckner and Frankie Ramsey; most intelligent, Linda Revis and Warren Roberts; most likely to succeed, Brenda Rector and Winfred Ramsey; most dependable, Deborah Briggs and M. J. Ball; most athletic, Kathy McCormick and Calvin Rhinehart; best personality, Freddie Robinson and Ronnie Buckner; and wittiest, Glenda Fox and Russell Wyatt.

OBSERVED - Still trying to get the annual finished - we're running late cause someone broke the camera - Glad we have a new boxing champion - I heard him sing Sunday night on Sullivan's show - sounded pretty good - Now Clay can go somewhere and eat worms - Sorry Otto McDevitt is ailing in the hospital, heard he was better today (Wednesday) - Recon the snows have left us? - I believe I'm going to have to go to school every day for a while - Have a good day
