THE NEWS-RECORD

The art Warrier Warr

VOL. 70 - NUMBER 52

MARSHALL, N. C. THURSDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1970

10e PER COPY

Christmas Edition Wednesday

As has been customary in the past, The News-Record will be published on Wednesday of next week instead of Thursday due to various Christmas Greetings from firms and individuals. The early publication will make it possible for subscribers to receive their paper before Christmas Day.

Cooperation is asked from all writers and advertisers to send in their copy before Tuesday morning if possible to assure publication.

Those wishing to have Greetings, who have not been contacted, are asked to notify The News-Record office not later than next Monday noon.

Social Security Teleservice --Call 252-8773

Social Security headquarters in Asheville announced this week that it now has Teleservice.

Almost all Social Security matters can be taken care of by phone. This includes filing a claim for benefits, changing your address, filing a Medicare claim, or just getting information, it was stated.

"A representative there will be glad to assist you and you will not have to wait to be interviewed," one official

The Social Security phone number is 252-8773.

Airport Is Possibility;

PICTURED ABOVE is the Manger scene in the presented on the courthouse lawn this Saturday, annual Christmas Pageant which will be Monday and Tuesday nights at 7:30 o'clock.

Christmas Pageant To Be Presented Here Saturday, Monday, Tuesday

For the eighth consecutive year hundreds of spectators, many from out-of-state, are expected to be here this coming Saturday, Monday and Tuesday nights for the presentation of the annual Marshall Christmas Pageant. Nightly performances will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The local nageant is unique in that live animals are used in a perfect setting for the Nativity scenes. A splendid cast will again perform and a choir composed of members from various churches in the county will furnish background hymns and carols. Mrs. David M. Roberts, of Mars Hill, is in charge of choir arrangements.

The non-commercial pageant has gained national recognition and is expected to

Courthouse Closed On Meeting Held Tuesday Dec, 24, 25, 26

Announcement has been made that all offices in the courthouse here will be closed on Dec. 24, 25 and 26 in observance of Christmas.

Feed Program OfferedCounty

The U.S. Department of Agriculture recently approved government-owned feed grain at reduced prices to farmers in Madison County which has suffered from a long and severe drought.

Silage and other feed available for livestock feed is only 50 percent that of last year, and lack of moisture during the growing season has drastically lowered the 1970 crop of corn planted for feed grain. The shortage of feed may necessitate the liquidation of some of the livestock herds in Madison be further publicized this the sheep.

Dean Shields, coordinator, announces that Joseph will again be portrayed by Stanley Ward, son of Mr. aand Mrs. Cleophas Ward; and Mary will be portrayed by Miss Carol Shelton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vader Shelton.

Payne and family, in charge of livestock and Aaron Sronce, of Bone Camp, is furnishing professional basketball team. will play a men's team composed of former and present basketball stars of Marshall in the local gymnasium on Monday night, Dec. 28. at 7 o'clock. The game is being sponsored by the Marshall Parent-Teacher Association.

Red Heads To Play Cage Game Here

During 1969-70 the attractive Red Heads played 201 games, winning 174. In addition to their expert ball handling, plenty of comedy is mixed with their game. At halftime they will entertain with a portacular performance, hooting all sorts of trick County.

A large crowd is expective livestock feed program to see the Marshall men be the Red Heads.

All persons who have participated in the combined choir in past yeare are invited to again participate.

A hospitality committee will serve hot coffee and cookies in the hall of the courthouse after each performance.

Staudenmaier Visits Lions Club Monday

William M. Staudenmaier, District Governor, 31-A. Lions International, paid his official visit to the Marshall Lions Club Monday night at the Rock Cafe. He is a member of the Flat Rock Lions Club and has held prominent positions in many clubs in several

He listed as the most outstanding projects of 31-A, which includes the Marshall, Mars Hill and Hot Springs clubs, as the erection of the boy's cabin at Eliada Home in Asheville; the eye-screening project, the efforts of Lions in eliminating Rubella (German Measles), and the memberuhip project which clubs are hopeful of a 10 per cent increase.

He then explained what is really meant by Lionism, its history and accomplishments. He emphasized the meaning of the Lion pin which is now worn by more than 940,000 members throughout the world. He concluded his remarks by commending the Marshall club on its value to this community and stressed the importance of serving others.

He was introduced by Zone Chairman Lion Plemmons. Nineteen members and one visitor, W. B. Ramsey, were present.

Roy Wild will again be in charge of lighting; Alton Extension Advisory Board Honored At Dinner Wed.

Members of the Madison County Extension Service Advisory Board, Extension personnel, and new members to the board met at their annual dinner meeting Wednesday night in the Mars Moore's All-American Red Hill Community Center. Past Heads, world champion girls accomplishments, future plans and various reports were given in addition to the election of new members to the board. In the absence of Earle Wise, county extension chairman, Fred Boss, assistant agent, presided.

E. C. Teague, chairman of the board, presented O. G. Ramsey with a Certificate of Appreciation for the fine accomplishments he had made in Madison and Henderson counties.

Various reports were given by different leaders including Mrs. Ethel Wallin, Home Economist; Mrs. Linda Harrell, rural housing; Wiley DuVall, tobacco; Gary Ealey, 4H; Fred Boss, dairying, were Willie Collins, Hot Springs; Spencer Rollins, Meadow Fork; Carl Cody, Mars Hill; O. G. Ramsey, Horse Shoe. Retiring officers included E. C. Teague, chairman; Gay Merrell, vicechairman; Mrs. E. O. Burnette, secretary.

New members elected by acclamation included Cloice Plemmons, Walnut, chairman; Dedrick Cody, Upper Big Laurel (already member) vice-chairman; Mrs. Jimmy Ramsey, Beech Glen, secretary; Wayne Gosnall, Grapevine; Larry Ferguson, Spring Creek; Cline Fowler, Spring Creek; Harold Baker, Hot Springs; Franklin Anderson, Mars Hill; and Lynne Baker, Walnut.

The members of the board were commended for their fine work and planning for the past five years and members of the extension department urged the new board members to plan for future programs, The delicious steak dinner was furnished by Hill Top Restaurant's catering service.

County appeared to be more agency officials outlined takoff procedures at a

in Mars Hill Town

Hall Tuesday night. Federal funds are available for construction of a runway, apron and taxiway, a planning engineer for the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) told a group spearheading the drive for the facility.

Joe Scheff of Atlanta, who with Robert N. Flournoy of the Commerce and Industry Division of the North Carolina Department of Conservatrion and Development inspected five possible airport sites Tuesday, said federal funds cannot be used to build

An airport for Madison factors involved in leveling a site in this mountainous

> Flournoy said there is a possibility that up to 80 per from the federal government, and that the state would split the remaining 20 per cent down the middle with the sponsoring local government

Scheff said a cooperative effort by all local governments which would benefit from the airport would be ideal, and reminded the group that the entire area would present a greater attraction to industry if such a facility is constructed.

A three-town oriented to Madison County appeared to be a likely course, but a sponsoring government was not immediately singled

o AIRPORT, Page 12