Miss Mary Sophia Wood Bride
Of Stephen Forrest Waddell

By RHONDA RIDDLE
Correspondent

There was a large crowd at Liberty Baptist Church Sunday for Sunday School. There will be a decoration at Liberty Cemetery the first Sunday in June.

Von Plemmons of Swannanoa spent the weekend with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Hardie Plemmons.

We were sorry to hear of Mrs. Hardie Plemmons being on the sick list. We wish for her a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rogers visited Mr. and Mrs. Foy Riddle Tuesday of last week.

Most of the farmers in this section have been setting their tobacco and tomatoes.

Miss Cindy Massey of Michigan is spending sometime with her mother and brothers.

Mrs. John Riddle is spending some time with her son, Foy Riddle.

Those visiting Mr. and Mrs. Foy Riddle over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gene Riddle and family of Swannanoa and Claude Philips.

Mrs. Foy Riddle visited Mr. and Mrs. Verge Keener of Bluff Sunday afternoon.

Miss Mary Sophia Wood of Mars Hill and Stephen Forrest Waddell of Canton, were united in marriage Saturday, May 29, at 3 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Canton.

The Rev. James E. Langford, pastor of the church, performed the ceremony. Wedding music was by Mrs. M. A. Harvey of Canton, organist, and Mrs. Bob Wood of Mars Hill, sister-in-law of the bride, vocalist.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Wood of Mars Hill. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Greek F. Waddell of 8 Pasadena Ave., Canton.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a long gown of white Bridal Taffeta, fashioned with a yoke of Alencon lace. The long, full sleeves had Alencon lace cuffs, and the skirt was sprinkled with Alencon lace medallions. The chapel train, falling from her waist, had a panel of the same lace. Her veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of white organza flowers, and she carried a bouquet of white glads, daisies, and peony roses.

Bridal attendants were the bride's twin sisters, Joan and Jean Wood of Mars Hill. Their long gowns were of papaya green and blue floral organza designed with long sleeves and jewel necklines. They wore matching portrait hats and carried single long-stem peony roses.

Mr. Waddell was his son's best man with Lt. Keith Wayne Waddell, of Pensacola, Fla., brother of the bridegroom, and Bob Wood of Mars Hill, brother of the bride, as ushers.

Mrs. Waddell is a graduate of Mars Hill High School and a rising junior at Mars Hill College where she will attend classes this summer. Mr. Waddell is a graduate of Pisgah Senior High School in Canton and was a junior at Mars Hill College before joining the U. S. Army. He will leave June 11 for an extended tour in Germany. Mrs. Waddell will join her husband in Germany in August. A cakecutting was held following rehearsal on Friday evening in the Waddell home. Members of the wedding party and families attended.

Lynne Baker Awarded Science
Award At M.H.S.

The annual Bausch & Lomb Science Award was presented May 25 to Lynne E. Baker by Clive M. Whitt, principal of Marshall High School.

"The Bausch & Lomb Science Award is especially significant," Mr. Whitt said, "because it recognizes our senior with the highest scholastic standing in science subjects."

As winner of the Award, Miss Baker is eligible to compete for a four-year Bausch & Lomb Science Scholarship at the University of Rochester, N. Y.

Scholarship winners are selected on merit. Stipends are based on need and may range up to $3,000 per year.

The Science Award—a handsome bronze metal—is presented to winners at more than 8,600 participating schools throughout the United States.

Lynne has done outstanding work in all her high school work and graduated as Salutatorian of her senior class of 78 students. She attended Governor's School for gifted students during the summer of 1970, and was Katherine Smith Reynolds Scholarship finalist in 1971, receiving a tuition grant to UNC-G. She served as class officer and vice president of the Beta Club during her senior year.

Lynne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Leonard Baker of Walnut.

Nutrition Aides
Attend Workshop

Nutrition Aides from six counties in Western North Carolina participated in a two-day food preservation workshop, May 24 and 25, in the Home Economics Department at Mars Hill College.

Mrs. Lola Pritchard, specialist in food conservation and marketing from North Carolina State University, conducted the workshop.

Nutrition Aides from Madison, Yancey, Mitchell, Avery, McDowell and Burke counties learned the proper procedures in canning fruits and vegetables. Tomatoes and green beans were canned as examples and much information on proper procedures to follow was given. Questions were asked and discussed. Each of the 13 ladies was given a chance to share interesting experiences with the group. The questions and discussions of the group were very good. They were truly interested and expressed their needs.

"Madison Aides and Extension Agents were happy to be hostess for this workshop. We appreciate the use of the Mars Hill College Home Economics Department for this workshop," Mrs. Ethel Wallin, Home Economics Extension Agent, stated.

Decoration

The annual decoration and homecoming day at the Grandview Baptist Church will be held this Sunday, June 6. The services start at 10 with decorating the graves. An all-day service is planned with a picnic lunch at noon. The Rev. E. J. Jenkins will bring the morning message. The afternoon will be devoted to special singing and recognition of former pastors and members. All singers and the public are invited.

Red Cross
News

The Asheville Area Chapter, American Red Cross, reports that during the month of May, 22 units of blood were collected while 28 units were used by residents of Madison County.

Also during May, the American Red Cross, Service to Military Families Department handled four cases for Madison County. All were for servicemen—one case for reporting and three emergency leaves.

Miss Virginia Hart of Mars Hill College taught a Water Safety Instructor course at the college to 10 students who became Red Cross Water Safety instructors. One student became an instructor of beginner swimming.

Mars Hill College pool will be open to the community June 7 through mid-July, Mondays through Fridays.

VBS To Start At Hot Springs

The annual Vacation Bible School will begin at the Hot Springs First Baptist Church next Monday, June 7 from 9-12 Monday through Friday; and will continue through Friday, June 18. Preparation Day will be held on Sunday, June 6 at 3 p.m.

All children between the ages of 3 and 17 are urged to attend.

Birth

To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carver, Mars Hill Rt. 3, a daughter, May 27, in Memorial Mission Hospital.
