

Miss Nila Grace Robinson Bride Of Ernest Kyle Mann, Jr.

The wedding of Miss Nila Grace Robinson and Ernest Kyle Mann Jr. took place Saturday, Aug. 21, at 4 p.m. in Bethel Baptist Church. The Rev. Fred Harrell of Burnsville officiated.

The bride is a graduate of Blanton's Business College and is employed by the Madison County ASCS Office in Marshall. She is a member of the Eastern Star Vance Chapter 285 of Weaverville. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Robinson.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kyle Mann of Swan Quarter. He is a graduate of Mars Hill College employed as accountant for Fitzpatrick and Sons of Asheville. He has completed two years of military service at Fort Bragg and Fort McClelland in Alabama.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of candlelight satin and lace with lace appliques trimming the Empire waist. Her long detachable chapel train was also of candlelight and her veil of candlelight illusion was attached to a headpiece of satin and sequins. Mrs. Ernest Wyatt was matron of honor and wore a full-length gown of burgandy crepe with burgandy illusion veil and nosegay of matching burgandy asters. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joseph Ray of Skyland, and Mrs. Robert Buckner of Leicester. Miss Jackie Buckner of Marshall was junior attendant. They wore baby pink crepe gowns with veils of pink illusion and carried nosegays of pink asters. Spencer Mann, brother of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Joseph Ray of Skyland, Gary Randolph and Don McMahan of Asheville. A reception followed. The couple will live in Asheville.

Midgett-Sanders Vows Are Spoken In Kinston

Miss Barbara Ann Sanders, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bryan Sanders of 1401 Stockton Road, Kinston, and Stephen Allen Midgett of Charleston, S. C., son of Mr. and

Mrs. Donald Gray Midgett of Stumpy Point, were united in marriage Sunday, Aug. 22, at Gordon Street Christian Church in Kinston at four o'clock in the afternoon. The Rev. David

Alexander officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a formal A-line gown of candlelight peau de soie overlaid with English net and appliques of Alencon lace outlined with seed pearls, designed with a scalloped neckline and short sleeves. The Empire waistline was accented in the back with a self fabric bow. Her shoulder length mantilla of English net was bordered with Alencon lace and was worn over a Camelot crown. She carried a cascade of white roses centered with a white yellow throated orchid showered with bridal ribbons.

Miss Deborah Montez Sanders, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Kathy Humphrey of Washington, Mrs. Ronald Moore of Chapel Hill and Mrs. Jackie Moye of Greenville, sister of the groom.

The father of the groom served his son as best man. Ushers were Jerry Waddell of Norfolk, Va., Dallas Gray Jr. of Wilson and Eric Swain of Washington.

The bride is a graduate of Grainger High School and Atlantic Christian College.

The groom was graduated from Manteo High School and Atlantic Christian College where he was a member of Delta Sigma Phi fraternity.

The couple is residing in Charleston, S. C.

Mrs. Midgett is a granddaughter of the former Miss Grace Bryan and a great-niece of Mrs. Maco Wallin of Marshall and a cousin of Mrs. Ralph Ramsey of Marshall.

Hunter, Treadway Attend 4-H Meet In Swannanoa

The 16th Western District 4-H Leadership Conference was held at Swannanoa during Aug. 9-14. The theme of the conference was "Teaching Teens to Teach." The objective was to help 4-H'ers gain in depth knowledge of and broaden their understanding of present day problems and learn skills and techniques which will be helpful in life and then sharing them with others. George Joyner was camp director in charge and Dick Smith, 4-H specialist.

modern art, do your own thing rap a little, recreation leadership, craft—macrame, and craft—jewelry boxes.

The following district officers presided over major assemblies and committees: Marie Hooper, president, David Palmer, vice president, Marvin Watts, secretary-treasurer, and Dawn Dixon, reporter.

Assemblies varied from a rap session with Representative Charles Taylor as moderator and Representative James Holshouser and Senator Herman Moore to Janie Shipley an IPFYE to India. Highlight of this busy week was Banquet Night. The Burke County Band provided music. Madison County delegates were Michael Hunter and Nancy Treadway.
