

A Few Of The Pictures, With Cutlines As They Appeared, Taken From The Files Of The News-Record During 1971

MEMBERS of the county commissioners and board of education met with J. Bertram King, FAIA Architect, here Monday when plans were formulated to insure immediate progress toward the construction of the consolidated high school here. Actual construction will start this summer and plans call for its completion by the fall of 1973. Attending the meeting were, seated left to right, Mrs. Bobby Jean Peek Rice, Joe R. Henderson; Mr. King; William Reeves, county attorney; Dr. Bruce Sams. Standing, l to r, William M. Roberts, Emery Wallin, Emery Metcalf, W. T. Moore, Ervin Adams and Dr. William A. Whitson.

OFFICIAL GROUNDBREAKING for the Madison County Consolidated High School, located on a 57 acre site adjacent to the Marshall By-Pass and Walnut Creek Road, was held Wednesday afternoon. Grading has started and plans are to let the general contract for construction in December or January, and to have the complex of buildings ready for use in the fall of 1973. Pictured above taking part at the ceremony, left to right, Emery Wallin, Bobby Ponder members of the board of education; R. L. Edwards, superintendent; holding spade is Ralph M. Lee, member of board of education; William C. Reeves, board attorney; J. Bertram King, of Asheville; architect; Mrs. Bobby Jean Peek Rice member of board of education; and William M. Roberts, chairman of the board of education.

RECOGNIZE the "models" pictured above? The Marshall beauties appeared on stage at the 4-H Dress Revue held in Mars Hill last Friday night while actual judging was being done. Left to right, Earle Wise, Jerry Plemmons, Wiley DuVall, Don Harrell and Tom Wallin.

SEVERAL MONTHS AGO the pet cat of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sprouse who live on Panhandle Road, Rt. 2, Marshall, had the misfortune of losing her newly-born kittens and almost succumbed from grief. Mr. Sprouse found some small squirrels and placed them near the mother cat. The cat immediately "adopted" the squirrels and let them nurse, as shown above. Needless to say, the squirrels were also pleased with their "adopted mother".

SHOWN ABOVE are the ladies who attended the meeting here Monday night when plans were made to establish an Epsilon Sigma Alpha International Sorority Chapter here.

THE SMOLTERING REMAINS of the two-story wooden garage and storage building at Barnard, owned by Dedrick Brown, which were destroyed by fire early last Friday morning. Damage was estimated at $8,000.

THOMAS L. BAILEY

New Forester In Hot Springs

Miss Charlotte Paulette Shupe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Shupe of Walnut, has been elected president of the Appalaches of Appalachian State University for next year.

She served this year as vice president and chief choreographer for the dance team which performs at half time at football and basketball games.

PICTURED ABOVE IS Mark Cody, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cody, of Foster Creek, who is the winner of the Madison County Sunflower Growing Contest. Mark is holding the winning sunflower which measured 19 inches in diameter.

SHOWN ABOVE is John David Kent, the happiest Little Leaguer in Atlanta Stadium, holding the ball he caught when Jimmy Rosario, Giant outfielder, fouled it into the stands.

MEMBERS OF the Board of Education of Madison County were sworn into office here Monday by Judson Edwards, clerk of superior court. Left to right, R. M. Lee, R. Z. "Bobby" Ponder, Emery Wallin, Mrs. Bobby Jean Peek Rice, William M. Roberts, and Mr. Edwards.

DORLAND-BELL REUNION HELD AT HOT SPRINGS—Pictured in front of the Dorland Memorial Presbyterian Church in Hot Springs are many of the former students of Dorland-Bell School who attended the Alumni Association reunion last Sunday.

DR. EVELYN UNDERWOOD, chairman of the history department at Mars Hill College, spoke on the rich cultural heritage of Madison County people at the April meet of the Hayes Run and Marshall Helping Hands 4-H clubs.

JOHN McELROY

McElroy At Grant Store

PICTURED ABOVE are officers of Marshall Chapter No. 35, The Order of the Eastern Star, who were installed Saturday evening, April 10. They are, front row (left to right), Mrs. Marie Eads, organist; Mrs. Bessie Slagle, warder; Bill Ricker, associate patron; Mrs. Judy Ricker, associate matron; Mrs. Janice Cantrell, worthy matron; Ernest Frisby, worthy patron; Mrs. Nan Fisher, Adah; and Mrs. Mae Edwards, Ruth. Second row (left to right) Mrs. Pat Houston, Esther; Mrs. Nancy Jo Edwards, conductress; Mrs. Pat Kent, Electa; Mrs. Lujett Hunter, Martha; Mrs. Willie Story, secretary; Mrs. Hilda Frisby, Associate conductress; Chauncey Metcalf, centinel; Mrs. Florence Ramsey, treasurer; Miss Ruth Guthrie, chaplain; and Mrs. Virginia Leake, marshal.