Homecoming At Mars Hill Held In Rain

The 1972 Homecoming of Mars Hill High School was held on Friday, October 27, in spite of pouring rain and frigid temperature.

The festivities began with a chicken supper, sponsored by the Mars Hill P.T.S.A. and given in the school cafeteria from 5 until 8 p.m.

The 1972 Homecoming Court was presented in ceremonies directly preceding the night's football contest. The Homecoming Queen, Miss Donna English, was crowned by football team captains David Price and Gary McMahan. The Queen was escorted by Charles Holt and was presented roses by Stephen Ponder. The members of her court were Miss Suzetta Bragg, escorted by Mike Osteen; Miss Vicky Hailey, escorted by Bobby Zink; Miss Lisa Huff, escorted by Jim Roberts; and Miss Jean Wood, escorted by Keith Walker.

The following game between the Wildcats and the Cane River Rebels was played in the rain on an exceedingly sloppy field and resulted in a 0-0 tie.

After the game, the band "Light Year" provided rock music for the annual Homecoming dance in the high school gymnasium.

BREAKS HIP

Mrs. Edith M. Hensley, 92, of Marshall Route 6, who has been staying at Pine Forest Rest Home, Biltmore, fell last Sunday morning and broke her hip.

She is now recuperating at Memorial Mission Hospital.

Mrs. Raymond Stines and Allen and Mr. & Mrs. Richard Wilde from Shady Side Florist attended the Christmas Design school at Tennessee Florist Supply in Knoxville, Tenn. last Sunday.

Roberts - Ray

In a candlelight ceremony on November 4, 1972, Miss Sandra Kay Roberts and Mr. James Hughie Ray, Jr. pledged their marriage vows. The impressive double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Robert Clegg of the First Baptist Church of Sylva, in the Starnes Chapel of West Asheville Baptist Church at 3:00 p.m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A. Roberts of 15 Druid Avenue, Asheville. Mr. Ray is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Hughie Ray of Mars Hill.

Presenting a program of wedding music preceding the ceremony was Mrs. William Jones, organist.

The bride was lovely in a floor length empire style gown of pea de soie with lace accenting bodice and train. Designed by the bride, the gowns with bodice of lavender velvet and skirts of lavender and aqua sheer printed chiffon over lavender, matching the design of the dress of the Maid of Honor. Flower girl was Miss Kim Higgins, Mars Hill, cousin of the groom. Her dress was like that of the Maid of Honor.

Serving as his son's best man was Hughie Ray Sr. of Mars Hill. Ushers were Billy Briggs, Mars Hill, Howard Higgins, Mars Hill, cousin of the groom; Terry Roberts, Cheraw, S. C., and Gordon Roberts of Asheville. Terry and Gordon are brothers of the bride.

The bride's mother was attired in a royal blue dress. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of white. The groom's mother was wearing a lilac ensemble with matching accessories and a white corsage.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Roberts of Asheville entertained the wedding guests at a reception following the ceremony in the Social Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with white linen. The three tiered wedding cake decorated with white flowers and topped with wedding bells centered the table. Lovely arrangements of pink flowers and candles completed the decorations.

For her going away outfit Mrs. Ray chose a gold dress and coat trimmed with navy, gold, and rust. She wore navy accessories.

Mrs. Ray is a graduate of UNC-Greensboro and has worked as Extension Home Economist in Jackson and Graham Counties. She is now teaching at Cullowhee Day Care.

Mr. Ray is a graduate of NCSU and is now Associate Agricultural Agent on the Cherokee Reservation. Formerly, he was the Assistant Agricultural Agent in Jackson County.

After a honeymoon trip to the Southwest, Mr. and Mrs. Ray will reside at Dawn Dell Apartments in Sylva.

The Rev. Charles Shelton of Black Mountain was his brother's best man. Ushers were Billy Conner of Alexander, brother of the bride, Ronald Shelton, brother of the bridegroom, Eddie Grindstaff, and Gary Hensley, all of Weaverville. Scotty Treadway of Marshall was ring bearer.

A program of Wedding music was presented by Miss Cathy Allen of Marshall, pianist, and Mrs. Ardath Peeke of Weaverville, soloist.

A reception was held at Mr. and Mrs. Coy Roberts' with Miss Debra Roberts and Miss Denise Allen both of Marshall, serving as co-hostess. They were dressed like the attendants.

The bride is a graduate of North Buncombe High School and is employed by Buncombe County Board of Education. The bridegroom attended Marshall High School and has served two years with the U. S. Army in Okinawa and Korea.

SIGN AND GRAPHIC ART STUDIO
For Quality Artwork
CALL WM. C. STANTON

To The Good People of Madison County:

Because of a continued lack of business we find we can no longer afford to maintain the Sign & Graphic Arts Studio.

Therefore, as of this month, we are closing it down.

We will continue to make signs and other art work until our present supplies are used up. During this time anyone wishing signs will have to furnish the wood or metal necessary to make these signs for art work.

We are truly sorry that this closing down is necessary. However, the costs of maintaining our shop and materials are more than we can afford in view of the negligible amount of business we do.

Most sincerely,

William C. (Brother Rat) STANTON

Pharmacy Comments

Stamp Hails Pharmacy

On November 10, 1972 the long-awaited eight cent pharmacy commemorative postage stamp will be issued in Cincinnati. Its appearance will coincide with the 120th anniversary of the American Pharmaceutical Association.

At the stamp's unveiling ceremonies in Detroit in August, Postmaster Merrill Hayden hailed pharmacists by commenting: "The druggist is a partner in health with the doctor. They merge their skills and knowledge for our betterment and sometimes for our very survival. What greater service can man render to man?"

The stamp will be colorfully dominated by the bowl of Hygieia, the mortar and pestle, and the crossed "R," all well-known pharmacy symbols.
