Just A Woman's Observations

BY DOROTHY BRIGMAN SHUPS

I just can't believe that I have been doing something this summer that even you won't believe either! I have been getting up early! I would wake up early and didn't feel like staying in bed—so I would get up! I've even been up some days before the paper came! Blanche Henderson told me at Sunday School that it was a sign that I was getting old! Can you imagine me "Old"?

Just watch that early rising become a burden when next week comes and I HAVE to drag out of bed! In a week, I'll be wishing COULD stay in bed for just a teensie, weenie bit longer! Why, oh why, do we never get what we want at a time we want it?

Have you been over to see our boys practicing? Shape and I went over the other night and they really looked good! I never saw such good team spirit and each boy seemed to be giving all he had to work out trying for the first eleven! There seemed to be a friendship growth between every member and no ill will shown anywhere. I just wouldn't be at all surprised if we have a winning bunch of boys and a team all Madison County will be proud of boys and a team all Madison County will be proud to call OURS!

Boy, that gathering at Watkins Glen was some turn out, wasn't it? If one could garner all of that enthusiasm for something constructive, mountains could be moved, couldn't they? I guess doing something like that would be the equivalent of what we used to do on Saturday nights when I was a young girl—namely get on the back of Bernard's old truck, go to Asheville and see two movies, spend at least $2, freeze on the ride back home, and then the next morning be awakened by Mama saying—"If you can stay up till twelve o'clock, you can get up in time to go to Sunday School!" and up we would get, and get to Sunday School—and stay for preaching!

My, I really had an interesting childhood, didn't I? Attention, all my last U. S. history students! I just read in some paper about the fact that many people think New Mexico is a foreign country! Even a school teacher from New York, no less, wrote the state saying her class was collecting data from foreign countries and could they have a poster from their "Country!" So, you see, my having you learn the states and capitals was a good thing and you are better informed than that New York teacher.

Now, if we were like most New Yorkers, we would assume that all people from there were idiots because they didn't know such a small fact. You know, they meet someone from the South and just because one person might ask a dumb question, they assume all of us down here are slow! OBSERVED — Enjoyed talking to Mrs. Buckner at Ingles the other day — she said her little Jackie will be in the 6th grade this year, I believe — doesn't seem any time ago that her daughter was mascot for one of our graduating classes—I noticed that L. Patrick Gray's lawyer looks like Mr. Goforth in the meat department there — Wayne Rice certainly has a friendly smile for everyone at Ingles — Glad Robert Johnson is back home and has even been to the corner, hurry and get well, boy — Lucille Cantrell has been so nice to give me cucumbers and pepper this summer — Do you ever watch the morning show on Channel 7 — That new gal, Sally Quinn just gets $75,000 per year — They say Mark Spitz has been relieved of his duties advertising milk because he advertises so much for several others such as shaving, swimming pools, goggles, etc. — Have you bought a freezer yet? — They say they are as scarce as meat, my favorite food — Have a good day!
