

Letterman - Kaufman Wedding Vows

Miss Cathy Kate Letterman and David Allen Kaufman were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. on August 17 in Asheville. The marriage vows were exchanged at St. Eugene's Catholic Church with the Rev. Joseph Cutter and Rev. Earl Moseley conducting the ceremony.

Mrs. Kaufman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fillmore Letterman of Cedar Hill Road, Asheville. Mr. Kaufman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Kaufman of 27 Stockwood Road, Asheville. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a long white hand-clipped, beaded, and scalloped imported cotton nylon Chantilly lace dress that featured a high neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her fingertip length veil of silk illusion was attached to a

Camelot headpiece and trimmed in matching lace. Mrs. Joyce Brock, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. She wore an empire gown of floral print with a deep flounced ruffle and a band of blue satin ribbon at the waist. She wore a blue picture hat and carried a nosegay of blue mums. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Peggy Kaufman, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Miss Renee Farlow, and Miss Susan Holcombe, all of Asheville. They wore gowns similar to the honor attendant with lavender, pink and yellow ribbons, respectively, and wore picture hats to match. They carried nosegays of matching mums.

Robert H. Kaufman, of Asheville, was his brother's best man. Ushers were Charles Brock, brother-in-law of the bride, Bill Kaufman, brother of the groom, and Chuck Corpening, all of Asheville. The mother of the bride was attired in an empire gown of peach polyester with a flowing skirt and a high neckline. She wore matching accessories and an orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom was dressed in a long soft mint dress of polyester knit with matching accessories. She wore a white rose corsage. The church was decorated with two side candelabras, accented with sprigs of fern, and two floral arrangements of white glad and yellow mums. A musical program was presented by James Roddy, organist. A reception was held in the fellowship hall, immediately following the ceremony. Serving were Mrs. Janet Bunyett, sister of the groom, Mrs. Ruth Holcombe, and Miss Sharon Sluder and Miss Carolyn Sluder, cousins of the bride. The bride's book was kept by Miss Reita Sluder, also cousin of the bride. For their wedding trip to Florida, the bride wore a short dress of navy and white jersey. She wore white accessories and a white orchid corsage. The bride is a 1973 graduate of Clyde A. Erwin High School and is presently employed by Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. The bridegroom is a 1973 graduate of T. C. Roberson High School and is employed by Carolins Industries. Pre-wedding events included a lingerie shower given by the bride's co-workers at the home of Mrs. Beverly Hathaway on June 11. A bridal shower was given by Miss Susan Holcombe, Mrs. Lee Holcombe, Mrs. T. L. Holcombe, and Mrs. Peggy Kaufman on June 20 in Wesleyan Methodist Church fellowship hall. On August 1, the bride was honored with a kitchen and grocery shower given by Mrs. Janet Bunyett, Mrs. Peggy Kaufman, and Mrs. Jeanne Batts at 12 Stockwood Road. On August 7, the bride was honored with a White Bible Ceremony at Deaver View Baptist Church. Immediately following the ceremony, there was a miscellaneous shower in the fellowship hall of the church. A rehearsal dinner was given on August 16 by the groom's parents at the Sheraton Inn. The couple will live in Asheville.

MRS. STEWART SHELTON
...the former Miss Deborah Lynne Fisher

Miss Deborah Lynne Fisher Bride Of Stewart Evert Shelton

Miss Deborah Lynne Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clay Fisher of Spartanburg, S. C., and Stewart Evert Shelton, son of Rev. and Mrs. Everett Shelton of Marshall, were united in marriage Saturday, August 10, 1974 at 2 p.m. in Cedar Spring Baptist Church in Spartanburg. The Rev. Marion H. Hendrix, pastor of the bride, performed the double ring ceremony. The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioli, white and yellow mums and greenery. The two candelabra on each side held white candles.

A program of wedding music was presented by Mrs. Gene Anderson, pianist; Eddie West, organist; and Mrs. Wayne Adair, Jr., vocalist. Mrs. Adair sang "Through The Years" and "Whither Thou Goest" prior to the ceremony, and "The Wedding Prayer" as a benediction. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white silk organza gown accented with Chantilly lace appliques; and matching Chantilly lace outlined the circular chapel-length train. Her veil of silk illusion was trimmed in matching lace and was attached to a lace-covered Juliet cap. She carried a cascade of pink sweetheart roses and multi colored daisies, pom-poms and baby's breath on a white basket.

Miss Cheryl Fisher of Weaverville, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a blue polyester crepe gown with matching lace bodice. Her white picture hat was trimmed with long blue streamers, and she carried a nosegay of yellow and white daisies, pink and yellow pom-poms and baby's breath with pink, blue, yellow and white ribbon. Bridesmaids were Miss Delores Bradley of Marshall; and Miss Pamela Fisher of Weaverville, cousins of the bride; and Miss Janice Young of Candler. Miss Deirdra Fisher of Spartanburg, sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. Their attire was like that of the honor attendant. Miss Candi Martin of Spartanburg was flower girl. She wore a long blue gown similar to the other attendants and carried a white basket of multi-colored daisies and pom-poms. David Mullinax of Spartanburg was ring bearer. The bride's brothers, Gregory and Steven Fisher of Spartanburg, served as acolytes. Jackie Ball of Marshall was best man. Ushers were Harry Dycus, Jr. of Lenoir; Frankie Ramsey of Marshall and Gregory and Steven Fisher of Spartanburg, brothers of the bride. The bride's mother wore a formal dress of aqua with matching accessories; and the bridegroom's mother wore a formal dress of navy and white with navy accessories. Both wore yellow mum corsages.

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall. Pink and blue decorations were used throughout the hall. The bride's table was covered with a blue lace tablecloth. The three-tiered wedding cake was cut by Miss Susan Johnson and Miss Jenny Lind Jennings. Miss Melody Morrow and Miss Susan Dean served punch. They were assisted by Mrs. Wayne Adair who also directed the wedding. The bride's book was kept by Mrs. Harry Dycus, Jr. of Lenoir, cousin of the bride. She wore a formal dress made with navy bodice and white, blue and pink skirt. The bride is a graduate of Paul M. Dorman High School and was employed by J. E.

Hicks, certified public accountant. She is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Fisher of Marshall and the late Mr. and Mrs. Suel C. Miller of Candler. The bridegroom is a graduate of Marshall High School and served with the Honor Guard Company in the U. S. Army at Fort Myers, Va. He is presently employed by Deringer Manufacturing Co. in Marshall.

For her wedding trip the bride wore a blue polyester dress with white accessories and a corsage of pink sweetheart roses and baby's breath. Following their wedding trip they will reside in Marshall.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ira B. Smathers and Miss Mildred L. Miller of Annandale, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fisher of Durham; Mrs. Cecil Fisher of Weaverville; Mrs. Lester Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Faulkner of Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. Don C. Young of Candler; Rev. and Mrs. Charles Shelton of Black Mountain; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Shelton, Mrs. Frank Ramsey, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Clemens, Miss Jeanne Clemens and Philip Wallin of Marshall; Mr. and Mrs. John Essick and Mike; Mrs. Andrew Shelton, and Mrs. Sandra Garrison, all of Lexington.

Something certain in uncertain times.

You've faced uncertainty before, and sure, you know you'll face it again. But these days, you'd like something to hold on to. Especially when it comes to your money.

That's why a 7-1/4% Certificate of Deposit from Northwestern just makes good sense. You only need $1,000 minimum deposit to get a four year maturity Certificate of Deposit that guarantees you 7-1/4%. It's something certain... in today's uncertain times!

Federal law and regulation prohibit payment of a time deposit prior to maturity unless three months of the interest thereon is forfeited and interest on the amount withdrawn is reduced to the passbook rate.
