No Contracts Awarded For Marshall Water System

members, only 15 had previous musical experience. The band "started from scratch" last August. Shown in front of the band is Bill Stell, director. The drum section was at far left just out of camera range. (Phot by June Glenn)
