

Super Sport: Kenny Carr

When Kenny Carr cranks up and really starts to roll, he is one of the best college basketball players in the country.

Kenny stars for the North Carolina State University Wolfpack.

He is an outstanding shooter. Last season, he ranked as one of the leading college scorers in the country.

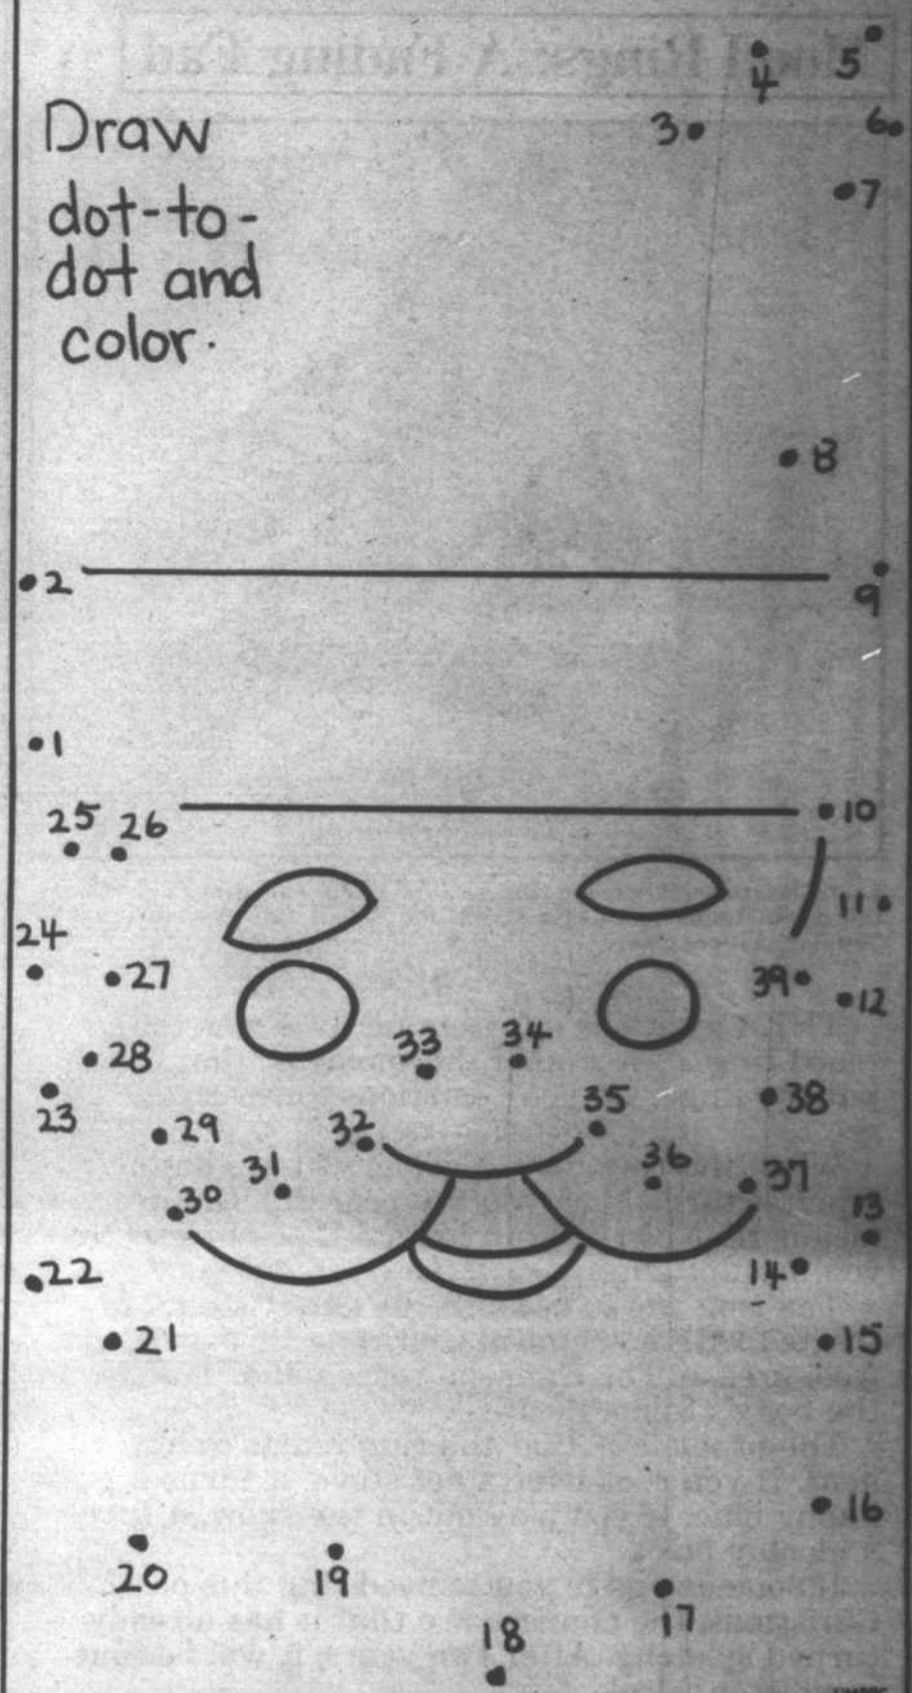

He also played on the U.S. Olympic team that won a gold medal in Montreal.

Unlike a lot of college stars, Kenny got a late start in basketball. He never played the game seriously until the ninth grade. By the time he was a senior, he made Prep All-American.

Off the court he is a likable, soft-spoken fellow.

Magic Tricks

The Old Ice Cube Trick!

Say: "I can lift this ice cube out of water without touching it."

What to do: Soak a piece of string in water. Let it dangle so it touches and lays on top of the ice cube. Now sprinkle salt on the ice cube. Keep the string on it while you slowly count to 10.

Now pick up the ice cube with the string. You didn't touch the cube at all! Very tricky.
