

Super Sport: Tony Dorsett

Tony Dorsett has completed his college football career and the University of Pittsburgh's opponents are delighted about that.

They're tired of chasing him.

In four years at Pitt, Tony set a college career rushing record by gaining more than 5,000 yards. He also scored more than 40 touchdowns and made a name for himself as one of the all-time greats.

Tony, who grew up near Pittsburgh, enjoys listening to music and taking long rides in the country.

Someday, he hopes to become a sports announcer. But first, he should have a long career in pro football.

In The Paper

This block of The Mini Page will help you learn to read and enjoy the rest of your local newspaper.

After your parents have finished reading today's issue, ask them to let you have it and help you.

Find the Index

The index is on the front page. It is a quick guide to some of the most read features or items in the paper.

INDEX
Comics	70
Education	64
Finance	118
Sports	70

The features are usually listed in A,B,C order. Some papers have only page numbers.

Other papers are divided into sections.

At the top of each page you will see the page number. Then you will see the section, if sections are used.

Some sections are lettered A,B,C,D.

Some sections have Roman numerals.

How does your paper number its pages?

Can you find the sports section?
