IN LOVING MEMORY
of
EMMETTE CROUGH
Who died July 9, 1976
If all the world was ours to give
We would give it to you and more.
To see the face of the one we loved
And to have him back once more.
We didn't know the pain he shared
Or hear his final sigh
We only know he was taken away
Without a last goodbye.
God gave us strength to bear it
As a strength to fear the flow;
But what it meant to lose him
No one will ever know.
Sadly missed,
SISTER MILDRED
BROTHERS, LEE,
WARREN and HUBERT

Folk Festival To Salute Musicians

A folk festival honoring old-time mountain music and the people who play it is scheduled for Aug. 20 in the auditorium at the Asheville Civic Center.

To be called the Byard Ray Folk Festival, it is being produced by Betty Sue Johnson who was born in Asheville and now has a cabin at Shelton Laurel. Quentin Ramsey, also from the Laurel area, will be master of ceremonies for the event.

Miss Johnson admits that she may be a bit partial to Madison County, but insists that the rich musical heritage of this county and the whole Western North Carolina area deserves to be honored. She says she named the festival for Byard Ray because, "Musicians like Byard deserve the credit for maintaining our musical tradition. Think of the thousands of hours he has spent playing the fiddle."
