

Day Care Center Learning And Fun Go Hand In Hand

HOW HIGH can we go may be the question in the minds of Kenneth Church, left, and Terrell Lowery as they attempt a little individual architecture.

A MOMENT of privacy seems to be what Tina Cogdill wants; a little time alone with a close friend... her teddy bear!

ENJOYMENT is the word that best describes the emotion of Bobby Payne as he points out a portion of a book substitute teacher Debbie Norton holds for him. Story-telling is one of the many events that take place at the day care center.

WELL, WE'RE ALL HERE might be the thought coursing through the minds of these children at the center. Pictured from left to right are Julie Tino, Tammy Holland, John Self, Kenneth Church, Terrell Lowery and Minday Goforth.

BUDDY GENTRY is a real swinger, particularly in this scene, as he brings his feet up to an unembarrassed camera's eye.
