

College Students Share Scholarship Fund

Approximately $2 million of financial aid will be available to Mars Hill College students during the 1978-79 school year according to Mrs. Jeanne Tyner, financial aid director at the Baptist-related school.

"Over 65 percent of our students will share in this aid," she explained, "but the deadline is fast approaching for submitting applications in three of the college's major scholarship programs. High school seniors who anticipate enrolling at Mars Hill and junior college or community college students who are considering transferring here next fall should be aware of this approaching deadline."

March 1 is the final day applications can be filed for one of the school's president's scholarships, trustee scholarships or Appalachian scholars grants, all of which are open to incoming freshmen and transfer students.

The President's Scholarship grants between $200 and $500 to high achievers who enroll as freshmen or transfer from another college or university. The Trustee Scholarship awards $600 to high school graduates who are in the top 25 percent of their class and plan to commute to Mars Hill. This scholarship is renewable for each year the student continues in school.

The Appalachian Scholars program will make its first awards to 15 students who will be freshmen in the Fall of 1978. This half-tuition grant is made to students who show leadership potential. They will take special classes to acquaint them with the culture, problems, and heritage unique to the Appalachian region in order that they will have the skills, knowledge, and attitudes to become leaders in this region.

In difficult economic times the cost of attending college can seem prohibitive; however, Mars Hill utilizes every possible opportunity for its students to receive an education at a competitive cost. Mrs. Tyner emphasizes that applications for financial aid are accepted only from persons who have applied for admission to the college.

For further information on financial aid, contact Mrs. Tyner at the admissions office, Mars Hill College, Mars Hill 28754.

Mrs. Gregory Reviews 'The Book Of Lists'

The Marshall Book Club met at the home of Mrs. Wade Huey on Walnut Creek Road Monday evening. Mrs. Walter Ramsey presided, opening the meeting to discussion of recent books read and recommended.

Mrs. Overton Gregory reviewed "The Book of Lists," by David Wallechinsky, Irving and Amy Wallace, the authors of "The People's Almanac," which was published in 1975. "The idea for this book came following the reaction of readers who enjoyed playing the game of making lists," stated Mrs. Gregory. "Everyone makes lists whether they mean to or not: New Year's resolutions, shopping lists, etc. from the time Moses descended from Mount Sinai with the list of 10 Commandments to present day lists of party guests and, let's face it, all of us today live in the age of lists—the 10 best, the 15 worst, and the 20 most..." continued Mrs. Gregory. Included in the "Book of Lists," are: 30 good places to live and 30 not-so-good places to live, nine outstanding winners of the congressional Medal of Honor, eight important libel cases, 10 greatest psychics of all time, celebrated persons and their brain radiation levels, nine great unsolved mysteries, etc.

Thirteen members and one guest, Mrs. Georgia Gallemore of Greenville, S.C., were present. Members present were: Mrs. Anson Betts, Mrs. James Story, Mrs. E.C. Teague, Mrs. J.L. McElroy, Mrs. J.B. Tweed, Mrs. Crafton Ramsey, Julia Elam, Mrs. John Corbett, Lucile Roberts, Mrs. J.L. Baker, Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs. Huey and Mrs. Gregory.
