

News From Madison Folks In Service

Navy Engineman Joel A. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ned Smith Jr. of Mars Hill, has reported for duty aboard the amphibious transport dock USS Vancouver, homeported in San Diego.

A 1976 graduate of Madison High School, he joined the Navy in July 1976.

Airman First Class Margaret D. Toon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Tweed of Route 2, Marshall, has been named Outstanding Airman of the Month in her unit at Francis E. Warren, Wyo.

A law enforcement specialist, Airman Toon was selected for professional skill, duty performance and exemplary conduct. She is assigned to the 90th Security Police Squadron, a part of the Strategic Air Command.

The airman graduates from high school in 1975. Her husband, Dennis, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Toon of 1452 Locust Lake, Road, Amelia, Ohio.

Marine Pvt. Ricky W. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Brown of Route 1, Hot Springs, has completed recruit training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, Parris Island, S.C.

During the nine-week training cycle, he learned the basics of battlefield survival. He was introduced to the typical daily routine that he will experience during his enlistment and studied the personal and professional standards traditionally exhibited by Marines.

He participated in an active physical conditioning program and gained proficiency in a variety of military skills, including first aid, rifle marksmanship and close order drill. Teamwork and self-discipline were emphasized throughout the training cycle.

He joined the Marine Corps in November 1977.

Continuing Education
Registration

Registration for the Mars Hill College Continuing Education Summer Program will take place on June 3 from 10 a.m. to noon in the College Union. A full schedule of night and day classes are available. Contact John M. Hough Jr., dean, Continuing Education, Mars Hill College, for further information. Over 50 students have completed requirements for the four-year baccalaureate degree in allied health, general business administration, elementary education, religion and social work in the four-year history of the program.

STEPHEN EDWARD HUFF of Mars Hill received his J.D. degree from the Wake Forest University School of Law at the commencement exercises just concluded. Huff was a Morehead Scholar and a Phi Beta Kappa graduate of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 1972. He is the son of Joseph B. Huff of Mars Hill and Helen H. Huff of Asheville and is married to the former Patti Coates of Mars Hill. Huff plans to make his home in Mars Hill and will practice law with his father in Marshall after July.
