So loving, kind and gentle You walked on earth a while To touch us with the beauty Of the sweetness in your smile.

My thoughts turn to you often Tho you left some time ago. I remember how you suffered Then the tears begin to flow.

While with us, you walked softly Finding joy in every day; And touched the hearts of many As you passed along this way.

Think, now, back to our childhood: Tho young, you seemed so wise.

You drank in all life's beauty With that twinkle in your eyes. I remember as we walked one

The mountains' beauty caught

You said "I want to sit and paint That view before I die."

And this was in our childhood Long before thoughts of death! Even then you looked at life

Jesse Helms—Working for Consumers

Senator Jesse Helms has been working for our consumers since his first day in the U.S. Senate. The biggest problem the consumer faces is inflation. Our dollars are worth less every day.

Jesse Helms has been a leader in the fight to stop inflation and give the consumer a break by restoring the buying power of our dollars.

• Senator Helms' "Balance The Budget" amendment has passed the U.S. Senate. It would require a balanced Federal budget-the first step to

 Jesse has led efforts to stop senseless U.S. foreign aid—another burden on our economy and a cause of inflation. Jesse Helms has fought hard to end needless government red tape and controls that cause shortages and drive up prices. Senator Helms has worked for reform of the welfare and food stamp systems to eliminate waste and fraud.

Jesse Helms needs your vote in November to continue working for North Carolina's consumers. Let's re-elect Senator Jesse Helms.
